Article 21 Subject to approval by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council of the plans of the Company to issue overseas-listed foreign shares or domestic shares, and after the authorization by shareholders at a general meeting, the Board of the Company may arrange for separate issuance of shares.

The Company is entitled to implement its respective plans to issue overseas-listed foreign shares or domestic shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within 15 months after the approval date by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

The shareholders holding unlisted shares of the Company may trade their shares overseas after obtaining relevant approvals from the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council. Such trading on the overseas securities exchange shall comply with relevant overseas regulatory procedures, regulations and requirements. No class shareholders' meeting is required for the trading of abovementioned shares on overseas securities.

Article 22 The Company shall complete issuing overseas-listed foreign shares and domestic shares within the number fixed in the plan at one time; if the shares cannot be fully subscribed at one time due to special circumstances, the shares may, subject to approval of the securities authority of the State Council, be issued separately.

Article 23 The registered capital of the Company is RMB666,667,000.

Article 24 The Company may increase its capital according to its business operation and development needs. The Company may increase its capital through the following:

- (i) issue new shares to non-specified investors;
- (ii) place new shares to specified investors and/or existing shareholders;
- (iii) bonus issue of new shares to existing shareholders;
- (iv) increase the share capital by means of transfer of common reserve fund;
- (v) other means permitted under PRC laws, administrative regulations and by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

The Company's increase of share capital by issuing new shares shall, after being approved in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association, be conducted in accordance with the procedures stipulated by relevant laws and administrative regulations of the PRC as well as the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 25 The Company may dispose of the shares of any untraceable shareholder and retain the proceeds, if simultaneously satisfy the following requirements:

- (1) during a period of 12 years dividends in respect of the shares in question have been distributed at least three times and no dividend has been claimed; and
- (2) upon expiry of the 12-year period, the Company has given notice of its intention to dispose of the shares by way of an announcement published in the newspapers, and notifies the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council and the relevant overseas securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

- Article 26 Unless otherwise provided by laws, administrative regulations, these Articles of Association and the rules of Hong Kong Stock Exchange, shares of the Company shall be free from any restrictions on the right of transfer, grant, inherit and pledge, and shall be free from all liens. Transfer of shares shall be registered with the Company's relevant share registrar.
- Article 27 The Company shall not accept its shares being held as security under a pledge.
- Article 28 Shares held by the promoters in the Company shall not be transferred within one year from the date of incorporation of the Company. Shares issued by the Company before the share offering shall not be transferred within one year from the date on which the shares of the Company are listed on a stock exchange.

Directors, supervisors and senior management of the Company shall declare their shareholdings in the Company and the changes therein to the Company; and shall not transfer more than 25% of their shareholdings in the Company during their respective term of office or transfer their shares within one year from the date on which the shares of the Company are listed on a stock exchange. The aforesaid persons shall not transfer their shares in the Company within half a year after leaving their offices. If the restriction on transfer under this clause involves H shares, the rules governing the listing of securities on the main board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange must be complied with.

Article 29 In the event that any director, supervisor, senior management of the Company and any person who holds more than 5% of the shares in the Company disposes of the Company's shares within six months after acquisition of the same or repurchases the Company's shares within six months after disposal of the same, any proceeds arising therefrom shall be attributed to the Company and the Company's board of directors shall retrieve such proceeds. If the restriction on transfer under this clause involves H shares, the rules governing the listing of securities on the main board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange must be complied with. However, securities companies holding more than 5% shares of the Company as a result of taking up unsubscribed shares as an underwriter are free from the six-month restriction when disposing of such shares.

In case the Board of Directors fails to comply with the requirements under the aforesaid clause, a shareholder shall have the right to request the Board of Directors to comply within thirty days. In case the Board of Directors fails to comply with the same within the specified period, such shareholder shall have the right to institute a legal proceeding directly with the court in its own name for the benefit of the Company.

In case the Board of Directors fails to comply with the requirements under the clause 1, the responsible directors shall assume joint liability according to the law.

Chapter 4 Capital Reduction and Repurchase of Shares

Article 30 The Company may reduce its registered capital in accordance with these Articles of Association. If the Company intends to reduce its registered capital, it shall follow the procedures stipulated by the Company Law and other relevant regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 31 The Company shall prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets when reducing its registered capital.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and make a public announcement at least three times on a newspaper within 30 days as of the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of register capital. A creditor shall have the right to require the Company to pay off debts or provide an appropriate guarantee to pay off debts within 30 days as of the date of receipt of the first notice from the Company or within 45 days as of the date of the public announcement if not receiving the notice.

The registered capital of the Company shall not be lower than the legally required minimum amount after the reduction of capital.

Article 32 The Company may repurchase its shares upon the approval by relevant competent authorities of China and according to the procedures set forth in these Articles of Association under the circumstances below:

- (1) cancellation of shares for the purpose of reducing its capital;
- (2) merging with other companies that hold shares in the Company;
- (3) awarding shares to the employees of the Company;
- (4) shareholders objecting to resolutions of the general meeting of shareholders concerning merger or division of the Company, requiring the Company to buy their shares.
- (5) Other circumstances as permitted by relevant laws and administrative regulations and the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Repurchase of the Company's shares for reasons set out in Clauses (1) to (3) of this Article shall be subject to resolution at a general meeting of shareholders. After the Company has repurchased its shares in accordance with Clause (1) of this Article, such shares shall be cancelled within 10 days after repurchase, or shall be transferred or cancelled within 6 months in the circumstances set out in Clauses (2) and (4).

Shares repurchased by the Company in accordance with Clause (3) of this Article shall not exceed 5% of the total shares issued by the Company; and the shares repurchased shall be transferred to employees within one year; the repurchase cost shall be covered by the after-tax profit of the Company.

Article 33 As approved by relevant authorities, the Company may repurchase its shares by the following means:

- (1) by making a general offer to all of its shareholders for the repurchase of shares on a pro rata basis;
- (2) by open dealing on a stock exchange;
- (3) by an off-market agreement outside of the stock exchange.

Article 34 If the Company repurchases its shares by concluding an off-market agreement outside of the stock exchange, it shall obtain prior approval at the Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to these Articles of Association. Upon approval in the same matter at the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company may discharge or amend the said agreement or waive any of its rights thereunder.

The off-market agreement for the repurchase of shares referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include (but not limited to) a document to become obliged to repurchase and acquire the right to repurchase shares of the Company.

The Company shall not assign the agreement for the repurchase of its shares or any rights thereunder.

In respect of the Company's repurchase of its shares, if the repurchase is made not on the market or through tender, the repurchase price shall not exceed a specified price limit, and if the repurchase is made through tender, the offer shall be made to all shareholders.

Article 35 After the Company repurchases shares in accordance with law, it shall cancel or transfer such shares within the period specified by laws and administrative regulations, and shall apply to the Administration for Industry and Commerce for change in registered capital or shareholding and make announcement accordingly.

The aggregate par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered capital.

Article 36 Unless the Company is undergoing liquidation, it shall repurchase its outstanding shares pursuant to the rules below:

- (1) where the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits or from the proceeds of a new issue for that purpose;
- (2) where the Company repurchases shares of the Company at a premium to its par value, payment up to the par value shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits or from the proceeds of a new issue for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of par value shall be effected as follows:
 - (i) if the shares being repurchased are issued at par value, payment shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits;
 - (ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made from the surplus of its distributable profits or from the proceeds of a new issue for that purpose, provided that the amount paid from the proceeds of such new issue shall not exceed the aggregate amount of the premiums received by the Company on issuance of the shares so repurchased or the balance of the Company's capital reserve account (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of such repurchase.
- (3) The Company shall make payments with its distributable profits for the following expenses:
 - (i) for acquisitions of rights to repurchase its own shares;
 - (ii) for the variation of any contract for the repurchase of its shares;
 - (iii) for release from its obligations under any repurchase contract;

- (4) After the total par value of the shares that are cancelled is deducted from the Company's registered capital, the amount equal to the par value of its shares deducted from its distributable profits shall go to the Company's premium account (or capital reserve account).

Unless otherwise stated herein, the financial treatment involved in the repurchase of shares shall comply with the relevant laws and administrative regulations of the PRC and the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for the Purchase of the Company's Shares

Article 37 The Company or its subsidiaries shall not offer any financial assistance to anyone who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares of the Company by any means at any time. The said purchaser of shares shall include a person who directly or indirectly assumes any obligations incurred for the acquisition of such shares.

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, by any means at any time, provide any financial assistance to the said purchaser as referred to above for the purpose of limiting or discharging the obligations assumed by that person.

This Article shall not be applicable to the circumstances described in the Article 39 of this Chapter.

Article 38 The financial assistance described in this Chapter shall include but not limited to the means below:

- (1) gifts;
- (2) guarantees (including the guarantor to undertake the liability or offer assets to secure the obligor's performance of obligations), compensation (not including compensation arising out of the Company's own defaults), or release or waiver of any right;
- (3) provisions of loans or any other agreements where the Company shall fulfill the obligations prior to other parties, or changes in the said loans or parties to agreements, or the assignment of the rights under such loans or agreements;
- (4) any other financial assistance provided by the Company in the event that the Company is insolvent or possesses no net assets, or in the event that its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purpose of this Chapter, "assuming any obligations" shall include obligations assumed by contract or any arrangement (whether enforceable or unenforceable, and whether made on its own account or with any other persons) or by any other means that result in a change in financial position.

Article 39 The following cases shall be exempted from the Article 37 of this Chapter:

- (1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is provided in good faith in the best interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares, or the provision of financial assistance being an incidental part to a plan;
- (2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets in the form of dividends;
- (3) the distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares or a reorganization of the share capital structure effected according to these Articles of Association;
- (5) provision of loans by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of the business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, financial assistance is provided from distributable profits);
- (6) the provision of monetary assistance for contributions to staff and workers' stock plans (provided that the net assets are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided from distributable profits).

Chapter 6 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 40 The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered forms.

In addition to the matters required by the Company Law and the Special Provisions, the share certificates of the Company shall also contain other matters required by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares are listed.

During the period when the H shares are listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Company must ensure that all of the documents relating to the title to the shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (including H shares) include the statements as follows. The Company shall instruct and procure the share registrars not to register the subscription, purchase or transfer of share in the name of any individual holder unless and until he submits such properly executed forms to the share registrars which shall include the statements as follows:

- (1) agreements among the purchaser of the share, the Company and each shareholder, and between the Company and each shareholder, have been reached to comply with and in accordance with the Company Law, the Special Provisions and other laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;

- (2) the purchaser of the shares and the Company, each of the shareholders, Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management of the Company, as well as a company, when acting on behalf of the Company and each director, supervisor, General Manager and other members of senior management, agree with each shareholder that all of the disputes and claims arising from these Articles of Association, or any rights and obligations stipulated in the Company Law and other Chinese laws and administrative regulations relating to the Company, shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with these Articles of Association. Any reference to arbitration shall be deemed to authorize the arbitration tribunal to conduct hearing in open session and to publish its award which is final;
- (3) the purchaser of the shares, the Company and each shareholder agree that the shares of the Company may be freely transferable by the holder;
- (4) the purchaser of the shares authorizes the Company to reach an agreement on behalf of him with each of the directors, General Manager and other members of senior management to authorize such directors, General Manager and other members of senior management to comply with and perform their duties to the shareholders in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 41 Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors. In the event that the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed require the signatures of other members of senior management of the Company on the share certificates, the share certificates shall also be signed by such members of senior management. The share certificates shall be effective upon being affixed or printed with the seal of the Company or other securities seals specified. The share certificates shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorization of the Board. The signatures of the Chairman of the Board or other members of senior management may be printed.

Article 42 The Company shall have a register of shareholders to record the following matters:

- (1) the name (title), address (residence), occupation or nature of business of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and number of the shares of each holder;
- (3) the payment made or payable amount for the shares of each holder;
- (4) the certificate numbers of the shares of each holder;
- (5) the date on which each shareholder is entered in the register as a shareholder of the Company;
- (6) the date on which each shareholder ceases to be a shareholder of the Company.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

Where two or more persons are registered as joint shareholders of any shares, they should be deemed as joint owners of relevant shares subject to the followings:

- (1) the Company does not have to register more than 4 persons as joint shareholders of any shares;
- (2) the joint shareholders shall, together or individually, pay the amounts payable for relevant shares;
- (3) if any of the joint shareholders dies, only the surviving joint shareholders may be deemed as holders of relevant share of the Company, but the Board of Directors is entitled to require the death certificate which it considers to be proper as regard to the amendment to the register of shareholders;
- (4) as regard to the joint shareholders for any share, only the person whose name is at the first place on the register of shareholders has the rights to receive the certificate of relevant shares and notice from the Company and to attend or exercise all of the votes relating to the shares. The notice which is serviced on the above-mentioned person should be deemed to be serviced on all of the joint shareholders of relevant shares.

Article 43 The Company may maintain the register of shareholders outside China and appoint an overseas agent to manage the register of shareholders in accordance with the memorandum of understanding or agreement concluded with the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities.

The original register of shareholders for foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong. A duplicate copy of the register of shareholders for the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall at all times ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate copy of the register of shareholders.

In the event of any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate copy of the register of shareholders for overseas-listed foreign shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

Article 44 The Company shall maintain a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include:

- (1) the register of shareholders that is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers described in Clause (2) and Clause (3) below);
- (2) the register of shareholders in respect of the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares that is maintained in the same place as the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed;
- (3) the registers of shareholders that are maintained in such other places as the Board of Directors may consider necessary for the purpose of listing the Company's shares.

Article 45 Parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuous period of such registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

Amendments to, or correction to, any part of the register of shareholders, shall be made in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where such part of the register is maintained.

Article 46 All overseas-listed foreign shares shall be transferred by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors may approve. The instrument of transfer of any share may be signed by hand without seal. In the event that the transferor or transferee of the shares of the Company is a recognized clearing house defined by Hong Kong laws (hereinafter referred to as “Recognized Clearing House”) or its agent, the instruments of transfer may be signed in mechanically-printed form.

Fully paid overseas-listed foreign shares which are listed in Hong Kong may be freely transferred pursuant to these Articles of Association. However, unless the transfer complies with the following conditions, the Board of Directors may refuse to process with transfer documents without stating any reasons therefor:

- (1) That transferring and other documents relating to or affecting the title to any registered securities shall be registered and the fee or fees levied pursuant to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is/are paid to the Company;
- (2) The transferring documents relate only to the overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (3) The stamp duty payable on the transferring documents had been paid;
- (4) The provision of the relevant share certificate(s) and the evidences for having the right to transfer stock be reasonably required by the board of directors;
- (5) If the stock is to be transferred to joint owners, the number of the joint owners shall not exceed four; and
- (6) The stock is free from all lien.

If the Company refuses to register any transfer of shares, the Company shall within two months of formal application for the transfer provide the transferor and transferee with a notice of refusal to register such transfer.

Article 47 In compliance with these Articles of Association and other applicable provisions, following share transfer, the name of the transferee shall be registered in the register of shareholders as holders of shares.

Article 48 All issue or subsequent transfer of H shares shall be registered in the register of shareholders maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with the Article 44.

- Article 49 Any overseas-listed foreign shareholder may transfer by the standard form of transfer of the place of listing or the form of transfer signed or bearing machine printed signatures all or any part of his shares. Transfer of the shares held by non-listed foreign shareholders is subject to the applicable laws and regulations of China.
- Article 50 Within 30 days from the date of Shareholders' Meeting or 5 days from the record date for the Company's distribution of dividends, no change shall be made in the register of shareholders as a result of transfer of shares.
- Article 51 When the Company calls for a Shareholders' Meeting, distributes its dividends, conducts liquidation or executes any other act requiring identification of shareholders, the Board shall fix the share registration date, at the end of which the shareholders in the register shall be shareholders of the Company.
- Article 52 Any person who objects to the register of shareholders and claims to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an amendment of the register.
- Article 53 For any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company, if his share certificate (hereinafter, "original share certificate") is lost, he may apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (hereinafter, the "Relevant Shares").
- Article 54 Applications for a replacement share certificate by shareholders of domestic shares and non-listed foreign shares shall be addressed pursuant to relevant requirements of the Company Law.
- Article 55 Applications for a replacement share certificate by holders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be addressed pursuant to the laws, the rules of the stock exchange, or other relevant regulations of the jurisdiction in which the original register of shareholders for overseas-listed foreign shares is maintained.
- Article 56 With respect to holders of foreign shares listed in Hong Kong who have lost their share certificates and file an application to the Company for a new share certificate, it shall be handled in compliance with the following requirements:
- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form along with a notarization or a statutory declaration stating the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss. Moreover, the applicant shall declare that no other person shall be entitled to have his name entered into the register of shareholders with respect to the Relevant Shares;
 - (2) The Company shall not have received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his name shall be entered into the register of shareholders with respect to such shares prior to the issue of a replacement share certificate to the applicant;

- (3) In the event that the Company intends to issue a replacement share certificate to an applicant, it shall publish an announcement of such intention at least once every 30 days within a period of 90 days in the newspaper as prescribed by the Board;
- (4) Prior to its publication, the Company shall deliver, to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of aforementioned announcement. The Company may publish the announcement upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange confirming the announcement has been exhibited on the premises of said stock exchange. Such announcement shall be exhibited on the premises of the stock exchange for a period of 90 days. In case an application for a replacement share certificate is made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver, by mail, to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published;
- (5) Upon expiration of the 90-day period referred to in the Clauses (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company may issue the replacement share certificate to the applicant in the event that the Company has not received any objections from any person with respect to the issuance of a replacement share certificate;
- (6) When the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the provisions of this Article, it shall cancel the original share certificate and record the cancellation of said original share certificate, along with the issuance of the replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders;
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of the original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant, and the Company shall have the right to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant.

Article 57 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to these Articles of Association, as for a bona fide purchaser obtaining the new share certificate referred to above or a shareholder registered as a owner of the relevant shares (in case of a bona fide purchaser), his name (title) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 58 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate, unless the said person claiming damage proves that the Company has committed a fraud.

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 59 The shareholders of the Company refer to the legal holders of shares of the Company, whose names (titles) are registered in the register of shareholders of the Company.

The shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations on the basis of the class and amount of shares held. Shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations. All shareholders of different classes shall rank pari passu among themselves as to dividends or distributions in any other form.

Article 60 The Company's shareholders of ordinary shares shall enjoy the following rights:

- (1) the right to receive dividends and other distributions proportional to the number of shares held;
- (2) the right to attend Shareholders' Meeting either in person or by proxy and exercise the voting right;
- (3) the right to supervise, advise or inquire the operating activities of the Company;
- (4) the right to transfer the shares held according to laws and regulations and these Articles of Association;
- (5) the right to be provided with relevant information in accordance with provisions of these Articles of Association, including:
 1. to obtain a copy of these Articles of Association, subject to payment of the cost;
 2. to inspect and to make duplicate copies, subject to payment at a reasonable charge, of the followings:
 - (i) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (ii) personal profiles of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management including: their present and former names and aliases; their principal addresses (residence); their nationalities; their full-time and all other part-time occupations and duties; their identification documents and the numbers thereof.
 - (iii) report(s) on the Company's share capital;
 - (iv) the latest audited financial report, the report of the Board of Directors, the report of auditors, and the report of the Board of Supervisors of the Company;
 - (v) special resolutions of the Company;
 - (vi) report(s) showing the aggregate par value, number, maximum and minimum price paid with respect to each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the end of the last financial year, and the aggregate amount incurred by the Company for this purpose;
 - (vii) a copy of the annual inspection report that has been filed with the administration of industry and commerce or other competent authorities in China; and
 - (viii) minutes of Shareholders' Meeting.

The Company shall make available the documents mentioned in Clauses (i) to (viii) other than Clause (ii) above and other applicable documents at its Hong Kong office for inspection, free of charge, by the public and shareholders in accordance with requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (the documents mentioned in Clause (viii) shall be available for inspection by shareholders only).

If any shareholder needs to access the relevant information as set out in the preceding article, the said shareholder shall provide the Company with written documents evidencing the type and number of shares held by the said shareholder, and the Company shall provide such information as required by the said shareholder upon authentication of the shareholder.

- (6) the right to receive distribution of the remaining assets proportional to the number of shares held when the Company dissolves or liquidates;
- (7) other rights conferred by the laws and regulations and these Articles of Association.

The Company shall not otherwise stay or infringe any rights attached to any shares on the sole basis that the holders of such shares with direct or indirect interests in such shares have failed to disclose the said interests to the Company.

Article 61 The shareholders of ordinary shares shall assume the following obligations:

- (1) to observe these Articles of Association;
- (2) to effect payment for the subscription of shares according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of contribution;
- (3) to assume other obligations as the laws and regulations and these Articles of Association require.

Shareholders are not liable to further contribution to the share capital other than such terms as agreed upon by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 62 Besides the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder (as defined below) shall not exercise his voting rights with respect to the following matters in a manner that is prejudicial to the interests of the shareholders, collectively or individually:

- (1) to relieve a Director or Supervisor from liability to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to allow the expropriation by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of other person(s)), in any manner, of the Company's assets, including (but not limited to) any opportunities deemed beneficial to the Company;

- (3) to allow the expropriation by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of other person(s)) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) the rights to distributions and vote (except pursuant to a restructuring proposed to shareholders for approval at a Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with these Articles of Association of the Company).

Article 63 For the purpose of the preceding Article, a “controlling shareholder” means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

- (1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the Directors;
- (2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of 30% or more of the voting rights in the Company;
- (3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- (4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

Chapter 8 Shareholders' Meeting

Article 64 Shareholders' Meeting shall be the authoritative body of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with the law.

Article 65 Shareholders' Meeting shall possess the following functions and powers:

- (1) to decide on the Company's operational policies and its investment plans;
- (2) to elect and replace Directors and to decide on the matters relating to the remuneration of Directors;
- (3) to elect and replace shareholders' representative Supervisors, and decide on matters relating the remuneration of the relevant Supervisors;
- (4) to examine and approve reports of the Board of Directors;
- (5) to examine and approve reports of the Board of Supervisors;
- (6) to examine and approve the Company's proposed annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
- (7) to examine and approve the Company's profit distribution and loss recovery plans;
- (8) to decide on the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;

- (9) to decide on such matters as merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change in the form of the Company;
- (10) to decide on the issuance of debentures by the Company;
- (11) to decide on the engagement, dismissal or non-reappointment of the Company's accounting firm;
- (12) to amend these Articles of Association;
- (13) to consider any motions raised by shareholders who hold 3% or more of the voting shares of the Company;
- (14) to decide on any other matters as the laws and regulations and the Article of Association specify.

Provided that there is no violation of the laws, regulations and the mandatory provisions of the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Shareholders' Meeting may authorize the Board to handle or to delegate to the Board such matters as the Shareholders' Meeting so authorizes and delegates.

Article 66 The Company shall not conclude an agreement to transfer the management of all or important parts of its business to others except Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management without prior approval at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 67 The Shareholders' Meeting shall include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Annual general meetings shall be called by the Board of Directors and held once every year, and within 6 months of the end of the preceding financial year.

Two or more independent non-executive Directors may propose to convene an extraordinary general meeting.

The Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within 2 months under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) when the number of directors is less than that required by the Company Law or is less than two thirds of the numbers required by these Articles of Association;
- (2) when the Company fails to recover the loss amounting to over one third of the share capital;
- (3) when shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's issued and outstanding shares carrying voting rights request(s) in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) when deemed necessary by the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors motions to call an extraordinary general meeting.

Article 68 When the Company convenes the Shareholders' Meeting, written notices of the meeting shall be provided in no less than 45 days prior to the date of the meeting to notify all the shareholders registered in the register of shares with respect to the matters to be considered, and the date and the place of the meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the meeting shall deliver his written reply concerning his attendance in no less than 20 days before the date of the meeting.

In the case that the rules of the securities regulatory body or the stock exchange in the place where the shares of the Company are listed require the Company to send out, mail, deliver, distribute, announce or by other means provide relevant documents of the Company in both the Chinese and English language, if after the Company has made proper arrangement to determine whether its shareholders wish to receive either the English version or the Chinese version only, the Company may, within the scope permitted by the applicable laws and regulations and according to such applicable laws and regulations, send to the relevant shareholders the English version or the Chinese version only (in accordance with the wishes as stated by the shareholders). Subject to the applicable laws and regulations and the rules of the stock change on which the shares of the Company are listed, the communications of the Company, including but not limited to notices of general meetings, circulars to shareholders, annual reports, interim reports and quarterly reports, may also be made available to the holders of foreign shares by publication of them in the website of the Company.

Article 69 At the annual general meeting held by the Company, shareholders severally or jointly holding 3% or more of the total voting shares of the Company are entitled to propose new resolutions in writing to the Company. The Company shall place such resolutions on the agenda for such meeting if they are matters falling within the scope of duties of the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 70 The Company shall, based on the written replies received from shareholders, calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting 20 days prior to the date of the general meeting of shareholders. In the event that the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting represents one half or more of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the meeting. If otherwise, then the Company shall, within 5 days, notify the shareholders again by public notice of the matters to be considered, and the place and the date for the meeting. The Company may hold the meeting following the publication of such notice.

No matters unspecified in the notice of extraordinary general meeting shall be decided on at such meeting.

Article 71 The notice of the Shareholders' Meeting shall:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) specify time, date and place of the meeting;
- (3) describe matters for consideration at the meeting;

- (4) provide such necessary information and explanations for shareholders to make an informed judgment on the matters to be considered. Without limitation to the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made with respect to the merger of the Company with another company, the repurchase of shares, the restructuring of share capital, or the restructuring of the Company in any other manner, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail along with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the reason(s) and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of the material interests of any Director, Supervisor, the General Manager, or other members of senior management in the proposed transaction and the effect of the transaction in their capacity as shareholders to the extent that it is different from the effect on the interests of shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution proposed to be passed at the meeting;
- (7) state clearly that a shareholder is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, and to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and that a proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (8) specify the time and place for delivering proxy forms for the relevant meeting.

Article 72 Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, notice of general meeting of shareholders shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not entitled to vote at the meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid mail to their addresses as shown in the register of shareholders. For the holders of domestic shares, notices of the general meeting may also be issued by way of public announcements.

The public announcement as referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in 1 or more national newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council within 45 days to 50 days prior to the date of the meeting. Upon publication of such announcements, the holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice for the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 73 An accidental failure to serve notice of a meeting on, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting or the resolutions passed.

Article 74 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be entitled to appoint to entrust one or several persons (whether a shareholder or otherwise) as his proxy/proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. A proxy so appointed shall have:

- (1) the right to speak at the meeting;

- (2) the right to demand or join in demand for a poll;
- (3) the right to vote by hand or on a poll unless otherwise provided by relevant laws and administrative regulations and relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authority of the place where the Shares of the Company are listed. Where more than one proxy is appointed, the proxies may only exercise the voting right on a poll.

Article 75 The proxy form shall be in writing, either to be executed by the appointer or by power of attorney. Should the appointer be a legal entity, then such proxy form shall be executed with the company seal or by its Directors or the legal representative. Such instrument shall specify the number of shares represented by each proxy.

Article 76 The proxy form shall be maintained at the residence of the Company or at such other locations as specified for that purpose in the notice regarding the convening of the meeting in no less than 24 hours prior to the time of the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote, or the time appointed for voting. In the event that such instrument is signed by another person authorized by the appointer, the authorization or other authorization instrument shall be notarized, and such notarized authorization or other instrument shall be maintained at the residence of the Company or at such other locations as specified for that purpose in the notice regarding the convening of the meeting at the same time. In the event that an appointer is a legal entity, its legal representative or such person as authorized by a resolution of its Board of Directors or other governing body may attend the Company's general meeting in the capacity of a representative. For the purpose of these Articles of Association, the attending of and voting at such meeting by the appointee shall be deemed to be done by the appointer (as the case may be).

If a shareholder is a Recognized Clearing House (or its nominee), it may, as it sees fit, appoint one or more persons as its proxy(ies) to attend and vote at any Shareholders' Meeting or class meeting. However, if more than one person is appointed, the proxy form shall specify the number and class of the shares relating to each such proxy. Such proxy may exercise the rights of the Recognized Clearing House (or its nominee) as if it is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 77 Any form issued to a shareholder by the Board of Directors for the appointment of a proxy by the shareholder for attendance and voting at a meeting shall enable the shareholder to instruct the proxy to vote for or against each resolution with respect to businesses transacted at the meeting. Such forms shall contain a statement which states that, in the absence of instructions by the shareholder, the proxy may vote in the proxy's own discretion.

Save as provided above, the aforesaid proxy form shall also contain the following: the number of shares represented by and name of the proxy; whether voting power is granted to the proxy; whether the proxy is entitled to vote for any temporary resolution proposed at any shareholders' general meeting; instruction of how to vote if voting power is granted; and date of appointing a proxy and the effective period for such appointment. Where a shareholder appoints more than one proxy, he shall specify the number of shares represented by each proxy in the proxy form.

Article 78 A vote provided in according to the instruments in such proxy forms shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the appointer or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares with respect to which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such matters shall have been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is used.

Article 79 A proxy who attends a Shareholders' Meeting on behalf of a shareholder shall produce his identification document. If a shareholder who is a legal person appoints its legal representative to attend the meeting, the legal representative shall produce his identification document and a notarially certified copy of the resolution or form of proxy of the Board of Directors or other governing body of the legal person (other than a Recognized Clearing House or its nominee) authorizing the legal representative.

Article 80 There are 2 kinds of resolutions made at the Shareholders' Meeting, ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution must be approved by votes representing more than one-half of the voting rights of the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution must be approved by the votes representing more than two thirds of the voting rights of the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 81 A shareholder (including proxy), when voting at a Shareholders' Meeting, shall exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of his shares carrying the voting rights and each share shall have one vote.

If any shareholder should waive his/her voting right on a particular matter, or is restricted to vote only for or against the matter, in accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Hong Kong Stock Exchange, such shareholder should waive his/her voting right or abstain from voting in accordance with the provisions therein; any vote casted by or on behalf of any shareholder in violation of such provisions or restriction shall not be counted into the poll result.

Article 82 At any general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by the following persons before or after a vote is carried out by a show of hands:

- (1) the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) at least two shareholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote;
- (3) one or more shareholders (including his/their proxy/proxies) present in person or by proxy and representing 10% or more shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting singly or in aggregate.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that such resolution has been passed. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.

Article 83 A poll demanded on the election of chairman of the meeting or a question of adjournment of the meeting shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matters shall be taken at the time decided by the chairman of the meeting, and the meeting may proceed to consider and vote on other matters. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Article 84 At a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same manner.

Article 85 In case of an equality of votes by show of hands or by poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to have a casting vote.

Article 86 The following matters shall be resolved by ordinary resolutions at the Shareholders' Meeting:

- (1) reports of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
- (2) any plans for the distribution of profits and for recovering losses formulated by the Board of Directors;
- (3) removal of the members of the Board of Directors and Supervisors on behalf of shareholders, and decision on their remuneration and methods of payment;
- (4) preliminary and final annual budgets, balance sheets, profit accounts, and other financial statements of the Company;
- (5) other matters other than those required by laws, administrative regulations, or by these Articles of Association to be approved by a special resolution.

Article 87 The following matters shall be resolved by special resolutions at the Shareholders' Meeting:

- (1) the increase or reduction in share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
- (2) the issue of debentures of the Company;
- (3) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change in the form of the Company;
- (4) the amendments to these Articles of Association;

- (5) the Company's acquisition or disposal of major assets or providing guarantees within 1 year with the transaction amount exceeding 30% of the total assets of the Company;
- (6) other matters that ordinary resolutions have been made at the Shareholders' Meeting indicating that resolutions regarding such matters will substantially impact the Company and such matters need to be passed by special resolutions.

Article 88 When requesting the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting, it shall be handled according to the following procedures:

- (1) Shareholder(s), individually or jointly holding an aggregate of 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting shall sign one or more written requests of the same form stating the object of the meeting and requesting that the Board of Directors convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting thereof. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary or a class general meeting responsively after receipt of such request. The aforesaid amount of shareholding is calculated as on the day when the shareholders make the request in writing.
- (2) If the Board of Directors fails to send notification of the meeting within 30 days from the date of the receipt of such request, requesting Shareholders may call the meeting within 4 months of the date of the receipt of such request by the Board of Directors, and the procedures for calling the meeting shall remain as the Board of Directors would call the meeting.

Where shareholders convene a meeting due to the failure by the Board of Directors to duly convene the same, all reasonable expenses so incurred shall be reimbursed by the Company, and any sum so reimbursed shall be set-off against such sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors.

Article 89 The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the Shareholders' Meeting. If the Chairman of the Board is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the meeting shall be chaired by the Vice Chairman of the Board. If both the Chairman of the Board and the vice Chairman of the Board are unable to attend the meeting, the Chairman may appoint a director of the Company to call and chair the meeting. In the event that no chairman of the meeting is so designated, the attending shareholders shall elect 1 of the directors to act as the chairman of the meeting. In the event that, for any reasons, the shareholders fail to elect a chairman, then the shareholder holding the largest number of the voting shares present in person or by proxy shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 90 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed, and such decision shall be final and conclusive and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes thereof.

Article 91 In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the voting result of any resolution at Shareholders' Meeting, the chairman shall have the power to have the votes counted. In the event that the chairman of the meeting does not have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy, who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting, may immediately following the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 92 If the votes are counted at the Shareholders' Meeting, the counting result shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Minutes shall be kept in respect of all resolutions passed at a Shareholders' Meeting and signed by directors present at the meeting. The minutes, together with the shareholders' attendance list and powers of attorney for attending by proxy, shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Article 93 Copies of the minutes of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be open for inspection by any shareholder free of charge during the business hours of the Company. In the event that a shareholder requests a copy of such minutes from the Company, the Company shall send the copy to such shareholder within 7 days upon the receipt of reasonable fees thereof.

Chapter 9 Special Procedures for Voting by Class Shareholders

Article 94 Shareholders who hold different classes of shares shall be known as class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall be entitled to rights and assume obligations according to the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Where the Company issues shares which do not carry voting rights, the words "nonvoting" shall appear in the designation of such shares.

Where the share capital includes shares with different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favourable voting rights, must include the words "restricted voting" or "limited voting".

Article 95 Rights conferred on any class of shareholders in the capacity of shareholders may not be varied or abrogated unless approved by a special resolution of shareholders at a general meeting, and by the class shareholders so affected at a separate meeting convened according to Articles 97 to 101.

Article 96 The following circumstances shall be deemed as a variation or abrogation of rights of a class shareholder:

- (1) an increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class, or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of another class having voting rights or distribution rights or other privileges equal to or superior to those of the shares of such class;

- (2) the conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into the shares of another class or the conversion or creation of a right of conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class;
- (3) the removal or reduction of rights to receive accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends attached to the shares of such class;
- (4) the reduction or removal of the preferential rights attached to the shares of such class for the receipt of dividends or for the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;
- (5) the addition, removal or reduction of the rights of conversion, options rights, voting rights, transfer rights, pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to the shares of such class;
- (6) the removal or reduction of the rights to receive payment receivable from the Company in the particular currencies attached to the shares of such class;
- (7) the creation of a new class of shares having voting rights or distribution rights or other privileges equal to or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (8) the restriction of the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class or the imposition of stricter restrictions thereof;
- (9) the issue of any rights to subscribe for, or to convert into, shares in the Company of the same class or another class;
- (10) the enhancement of rights or privileges of the shares of other classes;
- (11) the restructuring of the Company pursuant to which shareholders of different classes assume disproportionate liability;
- (12) the revision or abrogation of the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 97 The class shareholders so affected, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote at a general meeting of shareholders, shall nevertheless be entitled to vote at any class meetings with respect to matters set forth in Clauses (2) to (8), (11) to (12) of Article 96, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

An “interested shareholder” as referred to in this Article, shall mean:

- (1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by an offer to all shareholders of the Company or by open dealing on a stock exchange pursuant to Article 33 of these Articles of Association, a “controlling shareholder” as defined in Article 63;
- (2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by an off-market agreement pursuant to Article 33 of these Articles of Association, a holder of the shares to which the proposed agreement relates;

- (3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, an “interested shareholder” would mean a shareholder who assumes less liability than any shareholders of the same class or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the interests of shareholders of the same class.

Article 98 A resolution in a class meeting shall be passed by votes representing two thirds or more of the voting rights of shareholders of that class in the relevant meeting who are entitled to vote at the class meetings according to Article 97 of these Articles of Association.

Article 99 A written notice of a class meeting shall be given 45 days prior to the date of the class meeting to notify all of the registered shareholders of such class of the matters to be considered, the date and the place of the class meeting. A shareholders who intends to attend the class meeting shall deliver his written reply for the attendance at the meeting 20 days prior to the date of the meeting.

In the event that the shareholders who intend to attend such a meeting represent more than half of the total number of voting shares of that class, the Company may hold the class meeting; otherwise, the Company shall within 5 days notify the shareholders of the class, again by public notice, of the matters to be considered as well as the date and place for the class meeting. The Company may then hold the class meeting after the publication of such notice.

Article 100 Notice of class meetings need only be served on those shareholders entitled to vote at class meetings.

Meetings of any class of shareholders shall be conducted in as similar a manner as that of Shareholders’ Meeting. The provisions of these Articles of Association relating to the manner of conducting any Shareholders’ Meeting shall apply to any meeting of a class of shareholders.

Article 101 Apart from the holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and holders of non-listed foreign shares shall be deemed to be of the same class; holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be deemed to be of different classes; and holders of non-listed foreign shares and holders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be deemed to be of different classes.

In the case of authorization, allocation or issue of shares, the special procedures for voting of class shareholders shall not apply under the following circumstances:

- (1) where, upon approval by a special resolution passed at a Shareholders’ Meeting (subject to the unconditional authorization or the terms and conditions stipulated in the resolution), the Company authorizes, allocates or issues domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares either separately or concurrently once every twelve months, and the number of each of the domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares so issued does not exceed 20% of the number of the respective outstanding shares; or
- (2) where such shares are part of a plan of the Company to issue domestic shares or overseas-listed foreign shares at its establishment, which has been completed within 15 months of the approval by the competent regulatory bodies under the State Council.

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 102 The Company shall establish the Board of Directors which is composed of nine Directors, including one Chairman, two Vice Chairmen and three independent non-executive Directors who are independent of the shareholders of the Company and do not hold any positions in the Company.

At the re-election of the Board of Directors, external Directors, being Directors who do not hold any positions in the Company, shall account for more than half of the total number of Directors. There shall be no less than one third of the Directors being independent non-executive Directors in the Board of Directors. If an independent non-executive Director has served for more than 9 years, his/her further appointment shall be subject to a separate resolution to be approved by the shareholders of the Company. The documents addressed to shareholders containing that resolution shall state the reason(s) why the Board considers the candidate as independent and should be re-elected.

The Board of Directors may set up special committees including the audit committee, the remuneration and assessment committee, the nomination committee and the strategy committee to assist the Board of Directors to perform its duties, or to provide recommendations or advisory opinions on decisions to be made by the Board of Directors. The composition and terms of reference of the committees shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Article 103 Directors shall be elected at the Shareholders' Meeting, with a term of office of three years. Upon expiry of the term of office, Directors are eligible for re-election.

Directors shall be elected at the Shareholders' Meeting among candidates nominated by the Board of Directors or by shareholder(s) holding 3% or more of the shares of the Company in issue. A written notice of the intention of nomination of a Director candidate and of his willingness to be elected shall be sent to the Company seven days prior to the date of the Shareholders' Meeting. The minimum length of period for giving written notice of the intention to nominate a person for election as a Director and of his willingness to be elected shall be no less than 7 days, which shall commence on the date following the date of the notice of the Shareholders' Meeting. The Company shall publish an announcement or issue a supplementary circular in accordance with the requirements of the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange upon receipt of a notice from a shareholder to propose a person for election as a Director at the Shareholders' Meeting where such notice is received by the Company after publication of the notice of the Shareholders' Meeting. The announcement or supplementary circular so published shall include the particulars of such person proposed to be elected as a Director.

The Chairman and the Vice Chairman shall be elected and removed by the majority of Directors. The Chairman and the Vice Chairman shall hold office for a period of three years and are eligible for re-election.

A Director does not need to hold any shares in the Company.

Subject to laws and administrative regulations, shareholders may remove by ordinary resolution at a Shareholders' Meeting any Director whose term of office has not expired, without prejudice to any claims as may be brought in accordance with any agreement.

Article 104 The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the shareholders at general meetings, and shall perform the following functions and exercise the following powers:

- (1) to be responsible for the convening of and reporting to the Shareholders Meeting;
- (2) to implement the resolutions passed by the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (3) to determine the Company's business plans and investment proposals;
- (4) to formulate the Company's preliminary and final annual financial budgets;
- (5) to formulate the Company's profit distribution proposal and loss recovery proposal;
- (6) to make plans for the Company's increasing or decreasing its registered capital and issuing bonds;
- (7) to formulate plans for the Company's merger, division, or dissolution;
- (8) to decide on the Company's internal management structure;
- (9) to appoint or remove the Company's General Manager and to engage or remove the Company's deputy general manager and other members of the senior management, and to decide on their remuneration and payment method;
- (10) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (11) to formulate proposals for any amendment to the Company's Articles of Association;
- (12) to perform any other functions and exercise any other powers conferred upon by laws, regulations, regulatory documents, the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, these Articles of Association or the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company.

Resolutions regarding Clause (6), Clause (7) and Clause (11) above shall be passed by over two thirds of the total number of the Directors, and resolutions in relation to the rest of the circumstances above shall be passed by over half of the total number of the Directors.

Where the number of vacancy of Directors is not more than the number specified by the Company Law or not less than two thirds of the number of Directors prescribed by these Articles of Association, the Board of Directors has the power to appoint any person as a Director to fill the causal vacancy, and any person to be appointed as a Director to fill a casual vacancy of the Board of Directors shall hold office until the next following annual general meeting of the Company and shall then be eligible for re-election.

The Company must provide necessary information to external Directors for them to perform their duties.

Independent non-executive Directors may report any information directly to the Shareholders' Meeting or to competent securities regulatory authorities under the State Council or other relevant regulatory bodies.

Article 105 With respect to any proposed disposal of any fixed assets, and in the event that the estimated amount of such disposal together with the amount received from any other disposal of fixed assets occurring in 4 months prior to such proposed disposal exceed 33% of the amount of fixed assets shown on the latest balance sheet discussed at the Shareholders' Meeting, such disposal shall be subject to the approval at the Shareholders' Meeting; and the Board of Directors shall not dispose or agree to dispose such fixed assets prior to the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting.

“Disposal of fixed assets” referred to in this Article shall include the transfer of certain interests in assets, but excludes any provision of any security with any fixed assets.

The validity of any disposal by the Company of its fixed assets shall not be affected by the violation of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 106 The Chairman of the Board shall exercise the following powers and functions:

- (1) to preside over Shareholders' Meeting and to convene and preside over meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (2) to inspect the implementation of resolutions passed by the Directors at the meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (3) to sign the certificates of any securities issued by the Company;
- (4) to exercise other powers and functions conferred upon by the Board.

If the Chairman of the Board fails to exercise the powers and functions, the Vice Chairman shall exercise the same on behalf of the Chairman of the Board.

Article 107 The Board of Directors shall meet regularly and at least 4 Board meetings shall be held each year, approximately once for each quarter. The Board meetings shall be convened by the Chairman and notice of at least 14 days shall be given of a regular Board meeting to give all Directors an opportunity to attend. For any other Board meetings to be convened to discuss any urgent matters, such meetings shall be convened by 3 or more Directors or by the Chairman or the General Manager of the Company and a notice of a reasonable period shall be given. A regular Board meeting does not include the practice of obtaining the consent of the Board of Directors through the circulation of written resolutions.

Notice of statutory period shall be given to all Directors for all significant matters requiring the decision-making of the Board of Directors, and sufficient information shall also be provided. When more than one quarter of the Directors or two or more external Directors consider that there is insufficient information or that arguments proposed are imprecise, they may jointly propose that the Board meeting be postponed or that some of the matters to be discussed at the Board meeting be discussed at a later time. Under such circumstances, the Board of Directors shall accept the proposal.

If a substantial shareholder or a Director is deemed to have material conflict of interests in the matter to be considered by the Board of Directors, the matter shall be dealt with in a Board meeting rather than by a written resolution. Only the independent non-executive Directors who and whose associates have no material interest in the transaction shall be present at that Board meeting.

Article 108 Written notices of Board meetings or special Board meetings shall be given by personal delivery, facsimile, express mail or registered airmail.

Article 109 Should a Director attend a meeting, and has not stated his non-receipt of the meeting notice prior to arriving at the onset of the meeting or at the meeting, the said notice of the meeting shall be deemed to have been served.

Article 110 Any regular or extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors may be held by electronic communication so long as all Directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other. All such Directors shall be deemed to be personally present at the meeting.

Article 111 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held only if more than half of the Directors (including the proxies) are present.

Each Director shall have one vote. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, a resolution of the Board of Directors must be passed by the majority of the Directors of the Company.

Where there is an equality of votes cast both for and against a resolution, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to cast an additional vote.

Article 112 Directors shall attend Board meetings in person.

Where a Director is unable to attend a Board meeting for any reason, he may by a written power of attorney appoint another Director to attend the meeting on his behalf. The power of attorney shall specify the extent of authorization. A Director appointed as the representative of another Director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a Director within the scope of authority conferred by the appointing Director. Where a Director is unable to attend a Board meeting and has not appointed a proxy to attend the meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at the meeting.

Where a Director or any of his associates (as defined in the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange) is interested in a matter to be considered by the Board of Directors, he shall abstain from voting on such matter at the Boarding meeting. In deciding whether there is quorum for the Board meeting, such Directors shall not be counted.

Article 113 In respect of the matters examined on a special Board meeting, if the Board has delivered in written form the proposal to be voted to all Directors, and the number of the Directors who give their signatures and consent has constituted the quorum required for making a decision pursuant to Article 104, this proposal shall be taken as a written resolution of the Board, without the need to hold the Board meeting. Such written resolution shall be deemed to have the same legal effect as a resolution passed at a Board meeting held in accordance with the procedures set out in the relevant provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article 114 The Board of Directors shall maintain minutes of resolutions passed at meetings of the Board of Directors. Minutes of meetings shall be signed by all the Directors present at the meeting and the Secretary to the Board of Directors (being the person who recorded the minutes). The Directors shall assume liability for any resolutions of the Board of Directors. In the event that a resolution of the Board of Directors violates laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association resulting in the Company suffering serious loss, the directors who voted in favor of such a resolution shall compensate the Company for such loss. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, in the event that it can be proven that a Director has expressly objected to such resolution in voting, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such Director shall be duly released from such liability.

The opinions expressed by independent non-executive Directors shall be included in the minutes of the Board of Directors. The resolution(s) regarding connected transaction(s) of the Company shall not be effective without the signature of at least two independent non-executive Directors.

Chapter 11 Secretary to the Board of Directors

Article 115 The Company shall have a Secretary to the Board of Directors, who shall be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors. The Secretary to the Board of Directors shall be a member of the senior management of the Company.

Article 116 The secretary to the Company's Board of Directors shall be a natural person who has the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. His primary functions shall include:

- (1) to keep the Company's organizational documents and records intact;
- (2) to ensure the Company prepares and submits reports and documents as required by relevant authorities according to laws;
- (3) to maintain the register of shareholders of the Company and ensure the persons entitled to access the Company's records and documents receive the same in time.

Article 117 A Director or senior management of the Company may be appointed as the Secretary to the Board of Directors. The accountant of the Accounting firm appointed by the Company cannot serve concurrently as the Secretary to the Board of Directors.

In the event that the office of secretary is held concurrently by a Director, and an action is required to be conducted separately by a Director and a Secretary, the person who holds the offices of Director and Secretary shall not perform such action in dual capacity.

Chapter 12 General Manager

Article 118 The Company shall have one General Manager, who shall be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors.

Article 119 The General Manager shall be held accountable to the Board of Directors and exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to operate and manage the Company as well as implement resolutions of the Board;
- (2) to implementing the Company's annual operation and investment plan;
- (3) to make plans for the structuring of the Company's internal management departments;
- (4) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (5) to formulate regulations for the Company;
- (6) to propose to appoint or remove Vice General Managers and other members of the senior management;
- (7) to appoint or remove management staff except those that shall be appointed or removed by the Board;
- (8) to exercise other functions and powers conferred upon by these Articles of Association and the Board.

Article 120 The General Manager may attend meetings of the Board of Directors. However, the General Manager has no voting rights at the meetings unless he is also a Director.

Article 121 The General Manager shall exercise his functions and powers in accordance with the laws and regulations and these Articles of Association on a basis of honesty and diligence.

Chapter 13 Board of Supervisors

Article 122 The Company shall establish a Board of Supervisors. The Board of Supervisors shall supervise the Board of Directors, Directors, General Manager and other members of the senior management of the Company and shall prevent them from abusing powers, infringing interests of the shareholders, the Company and its employees.

Article 123 The Board of Supervisors shall consists of 3 Supervisors, one of whom shall be appointed as the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

The term of office for a Supervisor is 3 years, and the Supervisor may be reappointed at the expiry of the term of office. The appointment and removal of the Chairman of Board of Supervisors shall be by votes of two thirds or more of the Supervisors.

Article 124 The Board of Supervisors shall consist of 2 shareholder representatives and 1 employee representative of the Company. The shareholder representatives shall be elected and removed by the Shareholders' Meeting and the employee representative shall be elected and removed by employees of the Company in a democratic way.

Article 125 Directors, General Manager or other members of the senior management of the Company shall not be appointed as Supervisors.

Article 126 The Board of Supervisors shall hold at least one meeting every six months, which shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors or two supervisors.

Article 127 The Board of Supervisors shall be held accountable to the Shareholders' Meeting and perform the following functions and exercise its powers in accordance with the laws:

- (1) to review the Company's financial affairs;
- (2) to supervise the work of the Directors, General Manager and other members of the senior management who have violated laws, administrative regulations, these Articles of Association or the resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (3) to demand redress from Directors, General Manager or any other members of the senior management should their acts be deemed against the Company's interests;
- (4) to review such financial information as the financial statements, business reports and any plans for distribution of profits to be submitted by the Board of Directors to the Shareholders' Meeting, and to retain, on the Company's behalf any certified public accountants or chartered auditors to assist in the review of such information should any doubt arises with respect thereof;

- (5) to propose the convening of extraordinary general meetings;
- (6) to coordinate with Directors on behalf of the Company or initiate legal proceedings against the Directors;
- (7) to perform and exercise other functions and powers designated by shareholders at Shareholders' Meetings.

A supervisor may attend board meetings as a non-voting attendee.

Article 128 Meetings of the Board of Supervisors shall not be held unless over two thirds of the Supervisors are present. The resolutions of the Board of Supervisors shall be passed by the affirmative votes of two thirds or more of all of its members.

Article 129 All reasonable fees incurred in the retaining of such professionals as lawyers, certified public accountants or chartered auditors by the Board of Supervisors in the exercise of its functions and powers shall be borne by the Company.

Article 130 Supervisors shall fulfill their obligations of supervision in accordance with the laws and regulations and these Articles of Association.

Chapter 14 Qualifications and Obligations of Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and Other Senior Management

Article 131 A person may not serve as Director, Supervisor, General Manager or a member of the senior management of the Company if:

- (1) he does not possess civil capacity or possess limited civil capacity;
- (2) he has been convicted for corruption, bribery, infringement of property or misappropriation of property or other offences which disrupted the social or economic order, in which less than a period of 5 years has lapsed since the sentence was served, or he has been deprived of his political rights and less than a period of 5 year has lapsed since the sentence was served;

- (9) he has been determined by competent authorities for violation of applicable securities regulations and such conviction involves a finding that he has acted fraudulently or dishonestly, where a period of less than 5 years has lapsed from the date of such determination;

Article 132 The validity of any act carried out by a Director, General Manager or other members of the senior management of the Company on the Company's behalf to a bona fide third party shall not be affected by any irregularities in his office, election or any defect in his qualifications.

Article 133 In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, each of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other senior management owe the following duties to each shareholder in the exercise of the functions and powers of the Company:

- (1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business license;
- (2) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (3) not to expropriate the Company's property in any manner, including (but not limited to) usurpation of beneficial opportunities to the Company;
- (4) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including (but not limited to) voting rights and distribution rights, except pursuant to a restructuring of the Company which has been submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting for approval in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 134 Each Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management of the Company shall, in the exercise of his powers and in the discharge of his duties, exercise the care, diligence and skill(s) that a reasonably prudent person would exercise under comparable circumstances.

Article 135 Each Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management of the Company shall exercise his power or perform his duties in accordance with the principles of fiduciary duty, and shall avoid conflict of interests. These principles include (but not limited to) the following obligations:

- (1) to act honestly in the best interest of the Company;
- (2) to act within the scope of his powers and not to exceed such powers;

- (3) to exercise discretion in person without being subject to the directions of other individuals, and not to transfer such power to other individuals unless otherwise permitted by laws or administrative regulations or approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (4) to treat shareholders of the same class with equality, and to treat different classes with fairness;
- (5) not to execute any contracts or transactions or make arrangements with the Company unless otherwise provided by these Articles of Association or approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (6) not to pursue his own benefit in any way using the Company's assets unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (7) not to accept any bribery or other illegal income through his powers and position, and not to seize the Company's assets in any manner, including (but not limited to) beneficial opportunities to the Company;
- (8) not to accept any commission with respect to the Company transactions without the approval granted by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (9) to comply with these Articles of Association, to perform his duties honestly and faithfully, to protect the Company's interests, and not to pursue personal gains by taking advantage of his powers and position at the Company;
- (10) not to compete with the Company in any manner unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision made at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (11) not to misappropriate the funds of the Company or make loans to others out of the funds of the Company, not to deposit the assets of the Company into accounts under his name or any other name, and not to use assets of the Company as security for debts to shareholders of the Company or other individuals;
- (12) not to divulge any confidential information concerning the Company that has been obtained during his term of office, unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting; and not to utilize such information unless for the purpose of benefiting the interests of the Company; notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, they are allowed to disclose such information to a court of law or other competent government authorities under the following circumstances:
 - (i) as prescribed by laws;
 - (ii) as required for the purpose of public interest;
 - (iii) as required for the interest of the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of the senior management.

Article 136 A Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management of the Company shall not direct the following persons or organizations (hereinafter referred to as “connected parties”) to do what he is prohibited from doing:

- (1) spouses or minor children of that Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management of the Company;
- (2) the trustees of those Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of senior management of the Company or trustees of those as described in Clause (1) above;
- (3) the partners of those Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of senior management of the Company or partners of those as described in Clause (1) and Clause (2) above;
- (4) a company (or companies) under the exclusive control of those Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of senior management of the Company or under joint control of any person as described in Clause (1), Clause (2), Clause (3) of this Article or other Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of senior management of the Company;
- (5) The Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of senior management of the controlled companies as described in Clause (4) above.

Article 137 The fiduciary duty of a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management of the Company may not necessarily cease upon the conclusion of his term, and their obligations to keep the commercial secrets of the Company shall survive beyond the conclusion of his term. The duration of other obligations and duties shall be determined in accordance with the principle of fairness, taking into account the lapse between the time when a Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management of the Company leaves the office and the occurrence of the relevant event, and the situation and the circumstances under which his relation with the Company was ceased.

Article 138 The shareholders may by informed decisions at the general meeting to discharge the liability of any Director, Supervisor, General Manager and any other members of senior management of the Company as a result of violation of any specific duty, except for the circumstances as specified in Article 62 hereof.

Article 139 A Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other members of senior management of the Company who directly or indirectly has many material interests in any contracts, transactions, or arrangements executed or proposed to be executed with the Company (except for contracts of service between the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management and the Company), shall, as soon as possible, disclose to the Board of Directors, the nature and extent of his interest, regardless of whether or not such matters require the approval of the Board of Directors under the normal circumstance.

Unless the interested Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management of the Company have made such disclosure to the Board of Directors as required by the preceding paragraph of this Article, and the relevant matter has been approved by the Board of Directors at the Board meeting in which such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of senior management have not been counted into the quorum and voted at the meeting, the Company shall be entitled to rescind such contracts, transactions, or arrangements, except as to any other party which is deemed a bona fide party without knowledge of the violation of duties on the part of such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management.

Where any connected party of any Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management of the Company possess interest in any contracts, transactions or arrangements, such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management shall also be deemed to be interested.

Article 140 In the event that, prior to the Company's initial consideration of such contracts, transactions, or arrangements referred to by the preceding Article, and a Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior management of the Company has delivered a written notice to the Board of Directors, stating his interests in such future contracts, transactions, or arrangements, such Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management shall be deemed to have made the disclosure as provided in the preceding Article with respect to the statement(s) contained in the notice.

Article 141 The Company shall not, in any manner, pay any taxes for its Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management.

Article 142 The Company shall not directly or indirectly provide a loan or a guarantee in connection with the provision of a loan to a Director, Supervisor, General Manager and other senior management of the Company or of the Company's holding company or any of their respective connected parties.

The preceding paragraph of this Article is not applicable to the following cases:

- (1) the provision of a loan by the Company to, or a guarantee in connection with a loan to, its subsidiaries;
- (2) the provision of a loan by the Company to, or a guarantee in connection with a loan or making any other funds available to any of its Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management to pay any expenses incurred by them for the purpose of the Company or for the purpose of his performance of his duties in accordance with a service contract approved by the shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (3) in the event that the ordinary course of the business of the Company includes the loaning of funds or the provision of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to, or provide a guarantee in connection with a loan to, the relevant Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management or their respective connected parties, provided that such loans or guarantees are on normal commercial terms.

Article 143 Any person who receives any funds from a loan which has been made by the Company in violation of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

Article 144 A guarantee for a loan which has been provided by the Company in violation of paragraph 1 of Article 142 shall not be enforceable against the Company, except with respect to the following circumstances:

- (1) the loan was provided to a connected party of any of the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager and other members of senior management of the Company or of the Company's holding company and the provider of the loan of such funds has no knowledge of the relevant circumstances at the time of making the loan;
- (2) the collateral provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 145 For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a "guarantee" shall include an undertaking or any property provided by the guarantor to secure the obligator's performance of his obligations.

Article 146 In addition to the rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations when a Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management of the Company breaches his duties to the Company, the Company shall be entitled:

- (1) to require such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management to compensate for any loss sustained by the Company as a result of such breach of duty;
- (2) to rescind any contract or transaction entered into between the Company and such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management or between the Company and a third party, where such party knows or should have known that such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management representing the Company was in breach of his duty to the Company;
- (3) to require such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management to surrender the profits made as result of such breach of his duty;
- (4) to recover any amount which otherwise should have been received by the Company but were received by such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management instead, including (but not limited to) any commission;
- (5) to demand the payment of interest earned or which may have been earned by such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other members of senior management on any sum which should have been received by the Company.

Article 147 The Company shall enter into a written contract with each Director, Supervisor and member of senior management containing at least the following:

- (1) an undertaking made by such Director, Supervisor and member of senior management to the Company that he will comply with the Company Law, the Special Provisions, these Articles of Association and the Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and Share Repurchases published by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong as amended from time to time, and an agreement that the Company shall enjoy the remedies provided in these Articles of Association and that neither the contract or his office is capable of assignment;
- (2) an undertaking made by such Director, Supervisor and member of senior management to the Company that he will comply with and perform his obligations to shareholders under these Articles of Association; and
- (3) an arbitration clause provided in Article 192.

Article 148 With the prior approval of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company shall enter into a written contract with a Director or Supervisor with respect to his remuneration. The aforementioned remuneration may include:

- (1) remuneration with respect to his service as a Director, Supervisor or members of senior management of the Company;
- (2) remuneration with respect to his service as a Director, Supervisor or members of senior management of any subsidiary/subsidiaries of the Company;
- (3) remuneration with respect to the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) any payment as compensation for, or in connection with loss of office or retirement from office of such Director or Supervisor.

No proceedings may be brought by a Director or Supervisor against the Company for any benefit which otherwise would have been received by him by virtue of any aforementioned matters except pursuant to any contract described above.

Article 149 Any contracts between the Company and its Directors or Supervisors with respect to their remuneration shall provide that the Directors and Supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of Shareholders' Meeting, be entitled to receive compensation or other payment with respect to his loss of office or retirement in the event that the Company is to be acquired by others.

For the purpose of the preceding paragraph, the acquisition of the Company shall include any of the following:

- (1) a general offer made by any person to all the shareholders;
- (2) an offer made by any person in anticipation of becoming a "controlling shareholder". The meaning of a "controlling shareholder" is defined as the same as that in Article 63 hereof.

In the event that the relevant Director or Supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of such offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such sum pro rata among such persons shall be borne by the relevant Director or Supervisor and shall not be deducted from such sum.

Chapter 15 Financial Accounting System and Profit Distribution

- Article 150 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems and internal auditing system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and accounting principles of the China formulated by the Ministry of Finance.
- Article 151 A financial report shall be prepared at the end of each financial year and shall be examined and verified according to laws.
- Article 152 The Board of Directors of the Company shall present to the shareholders, at each annual general meeting, such financial reports as required by applicable laws, administrative regulations, directives promulgated by competent local government, central governmental authorities.
- Article 153 The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company 20 days prior to the date of annual general meeting of shareholders. Each shareholder of the Company is entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.
- Article 154 The Company shall send by prepaid mail to each holders of overseas-listed foreign shares, at the address of such shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders, a copy of the annual report containing the balance sheet (including each document to be contained in the appendices of the balance sheet as required by relevant laws and regulations), the income statement or the statement of recognized income and expenses or the summarized financial report, at least 21 days prior to the date of every annual general meeting.
- Article 155 The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards or that of the place where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, explanations shall be given in the notes to the financial statements. When the Company distributes its after-tax profit for that financial year, the lower of the after-tax profit as shown in the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards shall be adopted.
- Article 156 The interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations as well as the international accounting standards or such accounting standards in the place of listing overseas.

Article 157 The Company shall publish its annual results announcement within 3 months of the end of each accounting year and publish its interim results announcement within 2 months of the end of the first six-month period of each accounting year in accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

The Company shall publish its annual report within 4 months of the end of each accounting year and publish its interim report within 3 months of the end of the first six-month period of each accounting year in accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Article 158 The Company shall not establish account books other than those required by law.

Article 159 The Company's after-tax profit shall be allocated in the following order:

- (1) the making up of any loss;
- (2) allocation to the statutory common reserve fund;
- (3) allocation to discretionary common reserve fund in accordance with the resolution passed at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (4) payment of ordinary share dividends. No profit shall be distributed as dividends or in any other form as bonus before making up losses and setting aside of the Company's statutory reserve fund.

Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any shares may carry interest but shall not entitle the shareholder of such shares to participate in respect thereof in a dividend subsequently declared.

The power to cease sending dividend warrants by post will not be exercised until such dividend warrants have been so left uncashed on two consecutive occasions. However, such power may also be exercised after the first occasion on which such a dividend warrant is returned undelivered.

Subject to the laws and regulations of China and the rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Company may exercise its power to forfeit unclaimed dividends, but only upon the expiry of the period for which the dividends can be claimed. With regard to the exercise of power to issue warrants in bearer form, no new warrants shall be issued to replace one that has been lost, unless the Company is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed.

With regard to the right to dispose of the shares held by untraceable shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares, the Company's right to dispose is subject to the following conditions: (1) during a period of 12 years, dividends in respect of the shares in question have been distributed at least three times and no such dividend has been claimed; and (2) upon expiry of the 12-year period, the Company has given notice of its intention to dispose of such shares by way of an announcement published in newspapers and informs the Hong Kong Stock Exchange of its intention.

Article 160 The capital reserve fund shall include the followings:

- (1) any premium which exceeds the proceeds from issuance of shares at face value;
- (2) any other income credited to the capital reserve fund as required by the finance department of the State Council.

Article 161 Reserves of the Company may be applied towards the following objectives:

- (1) making up of losses, except that capital reserves may not be used.
- (2) conversion into capital. In the case of conversion of statutory reserves into capital through capitalization, the balance of such balance shall not be reduced to below 25% of the registered capital of the Company prior to the conversion.
- (3) expansion of the Company's production and operation.

Article 162 The dividend distribution plans of the Company shall be voted at the Shareholders' Meeting. After the Board of Directors takes into account the Company's financial position and subject to the relevant laws and regulations, shareholders may authorize by ordinary resolution the Board of Directors to distribute and pay dividends.

Article 163 The Company may distribute dividends in either of the following forms or a combination of both:

- (1) cash;
- (2) shares.

The power to forfeit any unclaimed dividends shall be exercised only upon the expiry of the period for which the dividends can be claimed.

Article 164 Dividends in respect of ordinary shares shall be denominated and paid in Renminbi. Dividends in respect of domestic shares shall be paid in Renminbi. Dividends in respect of overseas-listed foreign shares and other distributions shall be paid in the currency of the place where the shares are listed, and where there is more than one of such places, in the currency of the place of primary listing as determined by the Board of Directors. Dividends in respect of non-listed foreign shares shall be paid in Hong Kong dollars.

Article 165 Dividends paid in foreign currency shall be converted at the average closing exchange rate quoted by the People's Bank of China for the week preceding the declaration of dividends and other distributions.

Article 166 The Company shall appoint a receiving agent for the shareholders of the overseas-listed foreign shares.

Such receiving agent shall receive dividends of the overseas-listed foreign shares on behalf of such relevant shareholders, as well as all other amounts payable to such shareholders. The receiving agent appointed by the Company shall meet relevant requirements of the laws of the places and the relevant regulations of the stock exchange in which the Company's shares are listed. The receiving agent appointed for shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Chapter 16 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 167 The Company shall retain an independent accounting firm that fulfills the requirements provided by the relevant regulations of China to audit the Company's annual financial report and review the Company's other financial reports.

The retaining of the first accounting firm of the Company may occur at the inauguration meeting prior to the first annual general meeting of shareholders. The term of such accounting firm shall terminate upon the conclusion of the first annual general meeting of shareholders.

Should the inauguration meeting not exercise the powers under the preceding paragraph, the Board of Directors shall exercise those powers.

Article 168 The term of an accounting firm retained by the Company shall commence upon the conclusion of one annual general meeting of shareholders and shall sustain until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of shareholders.

Article 169 The accounting firm engaged by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (1) to inspect books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time, and to require the Directors, General Manager and other members of senior management of the Company to provide relevant information and explanations;
- (2) to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries any information and explanations necessary for the discharge of its duties;
- (3) to attend any Shareholders' Meeting and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any Shareholders' Meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any Shareholders' Meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's retained accounting firm.

Article 170 In the event of a vacancy in the Company's accounting firm, the Board of Directors may retain an accounting firm to fill such vacancy prior to the convening of the general meeting of shareholders. Such accounting firm may continue to act during the vacancy period if the Company has another incumbent accounting firm.

Article 171 Irrespective of the provisions in the contract concluded between the Company and the accounting firm, the Shareholders' Meeting may remove the accounting firm by an ordinary resolution before the term of the accounting firm expires. Notwithstanding such provisions, the accounting firm's entitlement to claim for damages arising out of its removal shall not be affected thereby.

Article 172 The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be compensated shall be decided by the Shareholders' Meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm retained by the Board of Directors shall be decided by the Board of Directors.

Article 173 The Shareholders' Meeting shall decide to retain, remove or discontinue the retention of an accounting firm and shall file such decision with the competent securities regulatory authorities under the State Council.

Article 174 In the event that a resolution at Shareholders' Meeting is passed to retain an accounting firm other than the incumbent accounting firm to fill any casual vacancy in the office of the accountant, or to reappoint an accounting firm which was retained by the Board of Directors to fill any casual vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) The retaining or removal motion shall be sent (before a notice of Shareholders' Meeting is given) to the accounting firm that is proposed to be retained or to leave or the accounting firm which has left in the relevant financial year (including any accounting firm leaving due to removal, resignation and retirement).
- (2) In the event that the accounting firm that is proposed to leave makes written representations and requests that the Company give notice to shareholders of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations have been received too late) take the following measures: (i) in any aforementioned notice for making a resolution, the Company shall state the representations made by such accounting firm which is to leave; (ii) to attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to every shareholder entitled to receive the notice in the manner as provided in these Articles of Association.
- (3) In the event that the Company fails to send the accounting firm's representations in the manner set out in Clause (2) above, such accounting firm may (in addition to its right to be heard) make further appeal.
- (4) A leaving accounting firm has the right to attend the following meetings: (i) Shareholders' Meeting at which its term would otherwise have expired; (ii) Shareholders' Meeting at which the said accounting firm is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal; (iii) Shareholders' Meeting which is convened as a result of the resignation of the said accounting firm.

The leaving accounting firm is entitled to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to any meeting referred to in Clause (4), and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any matters with respect to its capacity as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 175 Notice shall be given to the accounting firm in advance should the Company decide to remove such accounting firm or not to reappoint it. Such accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations at the Shareholders' Meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns from its position, it shall clarify to the shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting on any irregularities on the part of the Company.

Article 176 An accounting firm may resign from its office by depositing a resignation notice at the Company's residence, which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as stated therein. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (1) a statement to the effect that there are absolutely no circumstances with respect to its resignation which it believes should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (2) a statement of any such circumstances.

Where a notice is deposited under the preceding paragraph, the Company shall, within 14 days, send a copy of the notice to the relevant competent authorities. If the notice contains any statement(s) referred to in Clause (2) of the preceding paragraph, a copy of such statement(s) shall be made available for inspection by shareholders at the Company's address. A copy of such statement(s) shall also be sent by prepaid mail to all shareholders entitled to receive the financial report of the Company at their respective addresses as shown in the register of shareholders.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains the statement(s) referred to in Clause (2) above, the accounting firm may require the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary shareholders' meeting for the purpose of explaining the circumstances connected with its resignation.

Chapter 17 Merger and Division of the Company

Article 177 In the event of a merger or division of the Company, the Company's Board of Directors shall submit a motion, which shall be approved in accordance with the procedures stipulated in these Articles of Association and go through relevant examination and approval formalities pursuant to laws. Shareholders who object to the merger or division proposal shall be entitled to request that the Company or the consenting shareholders acquire such dissenting shareholders' shares at a fair price.

The content of the resolution on the merger or division of the Company shall be contained in a special document which shall be made available for inspection by shareholders of the Company. The document as stated above shall be sent by mail to holders of overseas-listed foreign shares. The Company may publish such content in the form of announcements (including announcements published through the website of the Company) subject to the fulfillment of requirements of the laws, regulations and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 178 The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by establishment of a new company.

In the event of a merger of the Company, the parties to the merger shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and publish an announcement in a newspaper for at least three times within 30 days after the date of the Company's merger resolution. The creditors may require the Company to repay debts or provide corresponding guarantees within 30 days after receipt of the notice or within 45 days after the first announcement if the creditors haven't received the notice.

After the merger of the Company, any rights in relation to creditor's rights and debts of each party to the merger shall be assumed by the surviving company after the merger or the newly established company.

Article 179 Where there is a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided accordingly.

In the event of a division, the parties to the division shall execute a division agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and publish an announcement in newspapers within 30 days for at least three times after the date of the Company's division resolution. The creditors shall have the right, within 30 days of receipt of the notice or within 45 days of the date of the first public announcement if the notice has not been received, to require the Company to pay its debts or provide guarantee to the amount of its debts.

The debts of the Company incurred prior to the division shall be jointly assumed by the companies formed after the division, except for debts specified in written agreements in respect of settlement of debts entered into between the Company and its creditors prior to the division.

Article 180 Changes in registration particulars of the Company resulting from the merger or division must be registered with the Administration for Industry and Commerce in accordance with law. Cancellation of the Company shall be registered in accordance with the law when the Company is dissolved. Incorporation of the Company shall be registered when a new company is incorporated in accordance with law.

Chapter 18 Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

Article 181 The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated according to laws upon any of the following circumstances:

- (1) the business license of the Company has expired;
- (2) A resolution for dissolution is passed by the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (3) A merger or division of the Company for which a dissolution becomes necessary;
- (4) The Company is announced bankrupt according to the laws due to overdue debts;

(5) The Company is ordered to be close down for violation of laws and administrative regulations in accordance with the laws.

Article 182 In the event of dissolution pursuant to Clauses (1) an (2) of the preceding article, the Company shall set up a liquidation committee within 15 days, and the members of the liquidation committee shall be decided by an ordinary resolution at the Shareholders' Meeting. If the liquidation committee is not duly set up, the creditors may request the People's Court to designate related persons to form a liquidation committee to carry out liquidation.

If the Company is dissolved pursuant to Clause (4) of the preceding article, a liquidation committee comprising shareholders, the relevant departments and relevant professionals shall be arranged by the People's Court in accordance with relevant laws to carry out the liquidation.

If the Company is dissolved pursuant to Clause (5) of the preceding article, a liquidation committee comprising shareholders, the relevant departments and relevant professionals shall be arranged by the relevant supervisory authority to carry out the liquidation.

Article 183 Where the board of directors has decided to liquidate the Company for any reason other than the Company's declaration of its own insolvency, the Board of Directors shall state in the notice convening the Shareholders' Meeting that it has made full inquiry into the affairs of the Company and is of the opinion that the Company shall be able to settle its debts in full within 12 months from the commencement of the liquidation.

The Board of Directors shall stop exercising its powers and functions upon passing of the resolution for a liquidation of the Company by the shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting.

The liquidation committee shall act in accordance with the instructions from the Shareholders' Meeting to report at least once every year to the meeting on the committee's income and expenses, the business and the progress of the liquidation of the Company; and to present a final report to the Shareholders' Meeting upon completion of the liquidation.

Article 184 The liquidation committee shall, within 10 days of its establishment, notify the creditors, and, within 60 days of its establishment, publish an announcement for at least three times on newspapers.

Article 185 Creditors shall, within 30 days of receipt of the notice, or for creditors who have not personally received such notice, shall within 45 days of the date of the announcement, contact the liquidation committee to claim their rights.

Article 186 During liquidation, the liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers:

(1) to organize the Company's assets and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets respectively;

- (2) to notify or to publish an announcement to the creditors;
- (3) to dispose of any continuing businesses of the Company in connection with the liquidation;
- (4) to pay outstanding taxes;
- (5) to settle claims and debts;
- (6) to organize the remaining assets subsequent to the settlement of the Company's debts;
- (7) to represent the Company in any civil proceedings.

Article 187 Following the organization of the Company's assets and the preparation of a balance sheet and an inventory of assets by the liquidation committee, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation proposal and present it to the Shareholders' Meeting or the relevant competent authorities.

The Company's assets shall be distributed in accordance with the order stipulated by laws and regulations. If there is no applicable law, such distribution shall be carried out in accordance with a fair and reasonable procedure determined by the liquidation committee.

Any surplus assets of the Company remaining after its debts have been repaid in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to its shareholders according to the class of shares and the proportion of shares held.

During the liquidation period, the Company shall not commence any new business activities.

Article 188 The liquidation committee shall immediately apply to the People's Court for a declaration of bankruptcy if it becomes aware, having liquidated the Company's assets and prepared a balance sheet and an inventory of assets, that the Company's assets are insufficient to repay its debts in full in an event of dissolution.

Upon the Company being declared bankrupt by a ruling of the People's Court, the liquidation committee shall transfer to the People's Court all matters arising out of the liquidation.

Article 189 Following the completion of liquidation, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a statement of income and expenses and financial accounts for the liquidation, which shall be verified by a China registered accountant and submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting or the relevant competent authorities for confirmation.

The liquidation committee shall, within 30 days of such confirmation, submit the aforementioned documents to the Administration for Industry and Commerce for an application for a cancellation of registration of the Company, and publish an announcement in respect of the termination of the Company.

Chapter 19 Procedures for Amending these Articles of Association

Article 190 The Company may amend these Articles of Association in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 191 If the amendments to these Articles of Association involve the content of the Mandatory Provisions, the amendments shall come into effect upon approval by the companies administration department authorized by the State Council and the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council. If the amendments involve matters of company registration, it shall go through registration procedures for changes in accordance with the laws.

Chapter 20 Resolution of Disputes

Article 192 The Company shall abide by the following principles for dispute resolution:

- (1) Any disputes or claims (i) between the Company and the Directors or members of senior management; and (ii) between holders of foreign shares (including holders of overseas-listed foreign shares and holders of non-listed foreign shares) and the Company, between holders of foreign shares (including holders of overseas-listed foreign shares and holders of non-listed foreign shares) and the Directors, Supervisors, General Manager or other members of senior management, and between holders of non-listed foreign shares and holders of non-listed foreign shares or holders of domestic shares, with respect to any rights or obligations by virtue of these Articles of Association, the Company Law, the Special Provisions and any rights or obligations conferred upon or imposed by any other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company, shall be submitted to arbitration by the parties concerned. When the aforementioned dispute or claim of rights is submitted to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute shall be submitted to arbitration, and all persons whose causes of action were based on the same ground, giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation shall be necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall, where such person is the Company, the Company's shareholders, Directors, Supervisors, General Manager, or other members of senior management of the Company, comply with the arbitration. Disputes with respect to the definition of shareholders and disputes concerning the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.
- (2) A claimant may select an arbitration to be administered either by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its Rules, or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant submits a dispute or claim of rights to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitration institution selected by the claimant. If a claimant selects the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center as the arbitration institution, either party to the dispute or claim may apply for the arbitration venue to be in Shenzhen, in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center.

- (3) Unless laws and regulations specify otherwise, laws and regulations of China are applicable to arbitration of settling the dispute or claim for rights as described in Clause (1) above.
- (4) The award of the arbitration shall be final and conclusive and binding on all the parties.

Chapter 21 Supplementary Provisions

Article 193 Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, all notices, information or written statements delivered to shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares of the Company shall be sent to each shareholder at the registered address of each shareholder of overseas-listed foreign shares (including addresses outside Hong Kong) by courier or by mail, and notices to shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be sent in Hong Kong as much as possible so as to enable them to have adequate notice and have sufficient time to exercise their rights and to act according to the instruction contained in the notice.

The newspapers for issuing announcements mentioned in these Articles of Association shall be those specified or required by the relevant laws, administrative regulations of China.

Article 194 “Senior Management” referred to these Articles of Association shall mean the General Manager, Deputy General Manager, Financial Controller and Secretary to the Board of Directors of the Company.

Article 195 For the purpose of these Articles of Association, references to the “accounting firm” shall bear the same meaning as the “auditor”.

Article 196 References to “over”, “within” and “no more than” in these Articles of Association include the relevant figures themselves, and References to “exceed”, “less than” and “except” do not include the relevant figures themselves.

Article 197 These Articles of Association are prepared in both Chinese and English versions. In the case of any discrepancies between these versions, the Chinese version last approved by and registered with the Administration for Industry and Commerce shall prevail.

Article 198 The right of interpretation of these Articles of Association shall be vested in the Board of Directors of the Company. Any matters unspecified in these Articles of Association shall be submitted by the Board of Directors of the Company to shareholders at the Shareholders’ Meeting for approval.
