Article 67 Independent non-executive directors shall be entitled to make a proposal to the Board of Directors on holding an extraordinary general meeting. For such a proposal, the Board of Directors shall give a written reply on whether to agree or not to hold an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to hold an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of general meeting shall be given within 5 days after the resolution of the Board of Directors is made. Where the Board of Directors does not agree to hold such a meeting, its reasons shall be given in a written way.

Article 68 The Board of Supervisors shall be entitled to make a proposal to the Board of Directors on holding an extraordinary general meeting and shall make such a proposal in written form. The Board of Directors shall give a written reply on whether to agree or not to hold an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to hold an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of general meeting shall be given within 5 days after the resolution of the Board of Directors is made. Any change to the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval from the Board of Supervisors.

Where the Board of Directors does not agree to hold such meeting or fails to give a written reply within ten days upon receipt of the proposal, it shall be deemed that the Board of Directors is unable or fails to perform its duty of convening a general meeting. In such a case, the Board of Supervisors may convene and preside over the meeting on its own.

Article 69

Shareholder(s) of shares who individually or jointly hold more than 10% of the shares of the Company shall have the right to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting and a written request shall be made to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall give a written reply as to whether it agrees or disagrees to the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten days after receiving the request(s) according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of general meeting within five days after passing the board resolution. Any changes to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or it does not reply within ten days after receiving the request(s), shareholder(s) of shares who individually and jointly hold more than 10% of the shares of the Company shall have the right to propose to the Board of Supervisors to convene an extraordinary general meeting and a written request shall be made to the Board of Supervisors.

If the Board of Supervisors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of general meeting within five days after receiving the request. Any changes to the original request in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Supervisors fails to give the notice of the general meeting within the specified time limit, it shall be deemed that the Board of Supervisors is not convening or presiding over the meeting, in which case, the shareholders of shares who individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

Article 70

Where the Board of Supervisors or shareholders decide to convene a general meeting on its/their own, it/they shall give a written notice to the Board of Directors.

Prior to the announcement of the resolution of the general meeting, the shareholding held by the shareholders who convene the meeting shall be not less than 10%.

Article 71 With respect to a general meeting convened by the Board of Supervisors or shareholders, the Board of Directors and the Secretary of the Board shall give cooperation. The Board of Directors will provide the register of members with the record date of shareholding.

Article 72 The expenses required for a general meeting convened by the Board of Supervisors or shareholders shall be borne out by the Company.

Article 73 When the Company convenes the annual general meeting, written notices of the meeting shall be provided in no less than 21 days prior to the date of the meeting; when the Company convenes the extraordinary general meeting, written notices of the meeting shall be provided in no less than 15 days prior to the date of the meeting to notify all the shareholders registered in the register of shares with respect to the matters to be considered, and the date and the place of the meeting.

The notice of convening the general meeting of the Company shall be made in form of an announcement.

The announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall mean the media/ website recognized by the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed as designated by the Company to publish announcements of the Company and other media where information is required to be disclosed. Where a notice of the Company is made via announcement, the date on which the announcement is published for the first time shall be deemed as the date of delivery. Once the announcement is made, all relevant parties shall be deemed to have been notified.

Article 74 At the Shareholders' Meeting held by the Company, the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and shareholders severally or jointly holding 3% or more of the total voting shares of the Company are entitled to propose new resolutions in writing to the Company.

Shareholders(s) who individually or jointly hold 3% or more of the shares of the Company, and if any such shares carry voting rights of the Company, is/are entitled to propose additional resolutions in writing to the convener before the shareholders' meeting is held. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of meeting within two days after receiving such proposal specifying the contents of such proposal.

The contents of a proposal shall be within the terms of reference of the general meeting of shareholders, and have definite agenda and specific matters for resolution, and shall comply with the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

Article 75 Unless in the circumstance hereinabove, the convener may not, after publishing the notice of the general meeting, make any change to the motions set forth in such notice or add any new motions. No motion shall be passed at a general meeting on any matter not specified in the notice of general meeting or in a supplementary notice or is not in accordance with the provisions of the Articles.

Article 76 The notice of the general meeting shall include the following:

- (1) the time, place and duration of the meeting;
- (2) matters and motions to be considered at the meeting;
- (3) state clearly: that all ordinary shareholders (including preference shareholders with restored voting rights) are entitled to attend the general meeting, and a shareholder may appoint proxies to attend the meeting and vote on his behalf, and that a proxy is not necessarily be a shareholder;
- (4) share record date for the right to attend the general meeting;
- (5) the contact person and telephone number for the meeting;
- (6) voting time and voting procedure of voting via internet or by other ways (if the meeting is held through network or by other means).

Details of all proposals as well as all information or explanations required for shareholders to make sound judgment of the matters to be discussed shall be fully and completely disclosed in the notice of the general meeting and its supplementary notice. In the event that independent non-executive directors are required to express their opinions on the matters to be discussed, a notice of general meeting or a supplementary notice shall, when given, also disclose the opinions and reasons of the independent non-executive directors.

Article 77 In the event that the election of directors and supervisors is to be discussed at a general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall fully disclose details of candidates for the directors and supervisors, and shall at least include the following particulars:

- (1) their educational background, work experience, concurrent positions and other personal details;
- (2) whether or not they have any related relationship with the Company or its controlling shareholder(s) and actual controller(s);
- (3) number of shares of the Company they hold;
- (4) whether or not they have been penalized by the CSRC and other relevant departments, and disciplined by the stock exchange.

A single proposal on each of the candidates for directors and supervisors shall be submitted.

Unless otherwise provided in Articles, notice of general meeting of shareholders shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not entitled to vote at the meeting) in the form of notice as provided in Chapter 18 of the Articles on an optional basis. For domestic shareholders, notices of the general meeting may also be issued by way of public announcements, and the announcement to domestic shareholders shall be published in a media that meets the conditions prescribed by the CSRC. Once the announcement is made, it shall be deemed that all domestic shareholders have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' meeting.

Article 78 In respect of H shareholders, the notice of general meeting of shareholders shall be given to the H shareholders of the Company by sending them in electronic form or providing them with notice of general meetings by other means or by posting them on the Company's website as well as on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and, subject to the fulfillment of the conditions set out in the laws and administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles, all H shareholders shall be deemed to have received notice of the relevant shareholders' meeting once the announcement has been made.

Article 79 Once the notice of the general meeting is issued, such meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled, nor any proposal listed on the notice be canceled without a legitimate reason. In the case of a postpone or cancellation, the convener shall, at least two business days prior to originally scheduled date for the meeting, publish the announcement and explain the reason.

Article 80 An accidental failure to serve notice of a meeting on, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting or the resolutions passed.

Article 81 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the Shareholders' Meeting shall be entitled to appoint to entrust one or several persons (whether a shareholder or otherwise) as his proxy/proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. Where the shareholder is a legal entity, it is entitled to appoint a person to represent such legal entity to attend and vote. A proxy (including a proxy of an individual shareholder and a legal entity shareholder) so appointed shall have:

- (1) the right to speak at the meeting;
- (2) the right to demand or join in demand for a poll;
- (3) the right to vote by hand or on a poll unless otherwise provided by relevant laws and administrative regulations and relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authority of the place where the Shares of the Company are listed. Where more than one proxy is appointed, the proxies may only exercise the voting right on a poll.

The proxy form shall be in writing, either to be executed by the appointer or by power of attorney. Should the appointer be a legal entity, then such proxy form shall be executed with the company seal or by its Directors or the legal representative. Such instrument shall specify the number of shares represented by each proxy.

Article 82

The proxy form shall be maintained at the residence of the Company or at such other locations as specified for that purpose in the notice regarding the convening of the meeting in no less than 24 hours prior to the time of the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote or attend, or the time appointed for voting. In the event that such instrument is signed by another person authorized by the appointer, the authorization or other authorization instrument shall be notarized, and such notarized authorization or other instrument shall be maintained at the residence of the Company or at such other locations as specified for that purpose in the notice regarding the convening of the meeting at the same time. In the event that an appointer is a legal entity, its legal representative or such person as authorized by a resolution of its Board of Directors or other governing body may attend the Company's general meeting in the capacity of a representative. For the purpose of these Articles of Association, the attending of and voting at such meeting by the appointed proxy shall be deemed to be done by the appointer (as the case may be).

If a shareholder is a Recognized Clearing House (or its nominee), it may, as it sees fit, appoint one or more persons as its proxy(ies) to attend and vote at any Shareholders' Meeting or creditors meeting. However, if more than one person is appointed, the proxy form shall specify the number and class of the shares relating to each such proxy. Such proxy may exercise the rights of the Recognized Clearing House (or its nominee) which shall be equivalent to the rights enjoyed by other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote, as if it is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Any form issued to a shareholder by the Board of Directors for the appointment of a proxy by the shareholder for attendance and voting at a meeting shall enable the shareholder to instruct the proxy to vote for or against each resolution with respect to businesses transacted at the meeting. Such forms shall contain a statement which states that, in the absence of instructions by the shareholder, the proxy may vote in the proxy's own discretion.

Save as provided above, the aforesaid proxy form shall also contain the following: the number of shares represented by and name of the proxy; whether voting power is granted to the proxy; whether the proxy is entitled to vote for any temporary resolution proposed at any shareholders' general meeting; instruction of how to vote if voting power is granted; and date of appointing a proxy and the effective period for such appointment. Where a shareholder appoints more than one proxy, he shall specify the number of shares represented by each proxy in the proxy form.

- Article 84 A vote provided in according to the instruments in such proxy forms shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the appointer or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares with respect to which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such matters shall have been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is used.
- Article 85 A proxy who attends a Shareholders' Meeting on behalf of a shareholder shall produce his identification document. If a shareholder who is a legal person appoints its legal representative to attend the meeting, the legal representative shall produce his identification document and a notarially certified copy of the resolution or form of proxy of the Board of Directors or other governing body of the legal person (other than a Recognized Clearing House or its nominee) authorizing the legal representative.
- Article 86 During the general meeting of shareholders, all directors, supervisors and the secretary of the board of directors should attend the meeting, and the President and other members of senior management shall also be present at the meeting. The directors, supervisors, senior management personnel shall provide explanation and clarification to the inquiries and suggestions raised by the shareholders at the general meeting.
- Article 87 At the annual general meeting, the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors shall provide a report of the previous year's business to the general meeting. Each independent director shall also report his duties.
- Article 88 The chairman of the meeting shall, before voting begins, announce the number of attending shareholders and proxies and the total number of their voting shares according to the register of the meeting.
- Article 89 There are 2 kinds of resolutions made at the Shareholders' Meeting, ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.
- An ordinary resolution must be approved by votes representing more than one-half of the voting rights of the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.
- A special resolution must be approved by the votes representing more than two thirds of the voting rights of the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.
- The Company's shares which also held by the Company do not carry any voting rights, and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders attending a general meeting.
- Article 90 A shareholder (including proxy), when voting at a Shareholders' Meeting, shall exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of his shares carrying the voting rights and each share shall have one vote.

All shareholders shall have the right to speak and vote at the general meetings, except if any shareholder should waive his/her voting right on a particular matter, or is restricted to vote only for or against the matter, in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules, in which case such shareholder should waive his/her voting right or abstain from voting in accordance with the provisions therein; any vote casted by or on behalf of any shareholder in violation of such provisions or restriction shall not be counted into the poll result.

Article 91 At a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same manner.

Article 92 The following matters shall be resolved by ordinary resolutions at the Shareholders' Meeting:

- (1) reports of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
- (2) any plans for the distribution of profits and for recovering losses formulated by the Board of Directors;
- (3) appointment and removal of the members of the Board of Directors and Supervisors on behalf of shareholders, and decision on their remuneration and methods of payment;
- (4) preliminary and final annual budgets;
- (5) annual report of the Company;
- (6) other matters other than those required by laws, administrative regulations, or by Hong Kong Listing Rules or by the Articles to be approved by a special resolution.

Article 93 The following matters shall be resolved by special resolutions at the Shareholders' Meeting:

- (1) the increase or reduction of an registered capital of the Company;
- (2) the division, spin-off, merger, dissolution, liquidation;
- (3) the amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (4) the Company's acquisition or disposal of major assets or providing guarantees within 1 year with the transaction amount exceeding 30% of total audited assets of the Company for the latest period;
- (5) any share incentive scheme;

- (6) other matters which laws, administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules or the Articles require to be adopted by special resolution or which the general meeting considers will have a material impact on the Company and therefore require, by an ordinary resolution, to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 94

In the event the matters of connected transactions are considered at a shareholders' general meeting, connected shareholders shall abstain from voting upon such connected transactions and the number of voting shares represented by such shareholders shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes. The announcement of the resolution of such meeting shall fully disclose the votes of the non-connected shareholders.

Prior to the completion of consideration and voting on the connected transactions at the general meeting, the connected shareholders shall submit a request of recuse to the presiding officer of the meeting, and the presiding officer of the meeting shall announce it to the general meeting. During the voting on the connected transactions, the connected shareholders shall not be allowed to vote on such matters and shall be supervised by the supervisors attending the meeting.

Before the completion of review and voting on the connected transactions at the general meeting, the non-connected shareholders (including proxies) and the supervisors attending the meeting shall have the right to request the presiding officer to recuse the connected shareholders from voting on such matters and explain the reasons therefor, and the connected shareholders requested to recuse themselves from voting shall not be allowed to cast their votes during the voting on the said matters if they have no objection on the request to recuse themselves from voting on such matters. If the shareholder requested to be recused considers that he/she is not a connected shareholder and does not need to fulfil the recusal procedure, he/she shall explain the reasons at the general meeting, and if the shareholder requested to be recused is determined to be a connected shareholder, he/she shall not vote on the matter at the meeting. In the event of any of the above circumstances, the person taking the minutes of the general meeting shall record the above circumstances in detail in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 95

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the Shareholders' Meeting. If the Chairman of the Board is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the meeting shall be chaired by the Vice Chairman of the Board. Where the Vice Chairman fails to perform his duties, a Director jointly elected by not less than half members of the Board shall perform the duties of the Chairman.

In a Shareholder's meeting convened by the Board of Supervisors, the chairman of the Board of Supervisors serves as the chairman of the meeting. If the chairman of the Board of Supervisors is unable or fails to perform his or her duties, a supervisor jointly elected by at least one half of the supervisors shall preside over the meeting.

A representative elected by the convener shall preside over the general meeting convened by the shareholders.

Where a general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure which makes it impossible for the general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the general meeting to act as chairman and continue the meeting, subject to the approval of more than half of the attending shareholders having the voting rights.

Article 96 At any general meeting, voting shall be conducted by open poll.

Article 97 When proposals are voted on at the general meeting, two shareholders' representatives shall be appointed to count, and monitor counting of, the votes. Where any shareholder has interests in any issue considered, the said shareholder or proxy thereof shall not participate in counting and monitoring of ballots.

Article 98 When votes are cast on proposals at the general meeting, attorneys, representatives of the shareholders and the representative of Supervisors shall be jointly responsible for scrutinizing and counting votes and shall announce the voting results at the meeting. The voting result shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. Where the laws, administrative regulations and other regulatory documents and the Hong Kong Listing Rules provide otherwise for the manner of vote counting and scrutinizing, such provisions shall apply.

Prior to the formal announcement of voting results, the relevant parties from the company, the persons responsible for counting votes and scrutinizing the conduct of the relevant poll, the major shareholders, relevant internet service provider involved in relation to voting at the general meeting, and by other means, shall be obliged to keep the status of voting confidential.

Article 99 A shareholder attending a general meeting shall express one of the following opinions on any proposal to be voted on: for, against or abstention. If a poll is blank, marked erroneously, illegible or has not been cast, the voter shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to vote and the voting results for the number of shares that he or she holds shall be recorded as "abstained".

Where any shareholder is, under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only in favor of (or only against) any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in violation of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

- Article 100 In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the voting result of any resolution at Shareholders' Meeting, the chairman shall have the power to have the votes counted. In the event that the chairman of the meeting does not have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy, who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting, may immediately following the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.
- Article 101 The resolution of the general meeting shall be promptly announced. The announcement shall state the number of attending shareholders and proxies, their number of voting shares and their percentages to the total number of the voting shares in the Company, the voting method or methods, the voting result for each proposal, and the details of each resolution passed in the meeting.
- Article 102 Where a proposal has not been passed or the resolutions of the preceding general meeting have been changed at the current general meeting, special mention shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.
- Article 103 Where a resolution on the election of Directors or Supervisors is passed at the general meeting, the term of office of the newly-elected Director or Supervisor shall commence on the day that relevant election resolution is passed at the general meeting.
- Article 104 Where a proposed resolution in relation to the payment of cash dividends, the issue of bonus shares or the capitalization of capital reserves has been passed at a general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plans within two months after the conclusion of the general meeting.
- Article 105 If the votes are counted at the Shareholders' Meeting, the counting result shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.
- Article 106 Minutes shall be kept in respect of all resolutions passed at a Shareholders' Meeting and kept by the secretary of the Board of Directors.

The minutes shall state the following contents:

- (1) time, venue and agenda of the meeting and names of the convener;
- (2) the chairman of the meeting, the names of the Directors, supervisors, managers and other senior managements;
- (3) the number of attending shareholders and proxies, and the total number of their voting shares and percentages to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (4) the process of review and discussion, summary of any speech, and voting results of each proposal;

- (5) the shareholders' questions, opinions, suggestions and corresponding answers or explanations;
- (6) the names of the attorney, vote counters and counting Supervisors;
- (7) other information to be entered into the minutes pursuant to the Articles of Association.

Article 107 The convener shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The directors, the supervisors, the secretary of the Board of Directors, the convener or representative thereof, and the chairman of the general meeting shall sign on the minutes of the meeting. The minutes shall be kept for 10 years, together with the book of signatures of the attending shareholders, the power of attorney for shareholders that attend the meeting by proxy, and effective information concerning voting online or by other such means.

Chapter 9 Board of Directors

Article 108 The Company shall establish the Board of Directors which is accountable to the general meeting and composed of nine Directors, including one Chairman, two Vice Chairmen and three independent non-executive Directors who are independent of the shareholders of the Company and do not hold any positions in the Company.

At the re-election of the Board of Directors, external Directors, being Directors who do not hold any positions in the Company, shall account for more than half of the total number of Directors. There shall be no less than one third of the Directors being independent non-executive Directors in the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may set up special committees including the audit committee, the remuneration and assessment committee, the nomination committee and the strategy committee to assist the Board of Directors to perform its duties, or to provide recommendations or advisory opinions on decisions to be made by the Board of Directors. The composition and terms of reference of the committees shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Article 109 Directors shall be elected or be changed at the Shareholders' Meeting, and may be removed from office by the General Meeting before the expiration of their terms of office. The term of office is three years. Upon expiry of the term of office, Directors are eligible for re-election.

A Director does not need to hold any shares in the Company.

Subject to laws and administrative regulations, shareholders may remove by ordinary resolution at a Shareholders' Meeting any Director whose term of office has not expired, without prejudice to any claims as may be brought in accordance with any agreement.

Independent non-executive directors among the directors shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) independent of shareholders of the Company;
- (2) not in office within the Company;
- (3) one of the independent non-executive directors shall possess appropriate professional qualifications and expertise in accounting or financial management in compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules;
- (4) other conditions as stipulated in other laws and regulations, regulatory documents, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles.

External directors shall have sufficient time and requisite expertise to perform their duties. The Company shall provide the necessary information to enable the external directors to perform their duties.

Directors other than external directors and independent non-executive directors may hold office of other senior management of the Company (except supervisors). However, the total number of directors serving the office of manager or other senior management personnel concurrently and labour union representative holding the office of director shall not exceed half of the total number of directors of the Company.

Article 110 Directors shall follow the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles and bear following faithful obligations to the Company:

- (1) Directors are not allowed to abuse their authorities to accept bribes or other illegal income, and may not encroach on the Company's property;
- (2) Directors are not allowed to misappropriate the property of the Company;
- (3) Directors are not allowed to deposit the assets of the Company into an account in their own names or in any other individual's name;
- (4) Directors are not allowed to lend the funds of the Company to other people or provide guarantees for other people with the assets of the Company in violation of regulations of the Articles or without consent of the Shareholders' Meeting or the Board of Directors;
- (5) Directors are not allowed to execute any contract or engage in any transaction with the Company in violation of the Articles or without consent of the Shareholders' Meeting;

- (6) Without consent of the Shareholders' Meeting, directors shall not, taking advantage of their positions, seek for commercial opportunity which shall belong to the Company and engage in the same business as the Company in which he serves either for his own account or for any other person's account;
- (7) Directors are not allowed to possess the commission obtained from the transaction between others and the Company;
- (8) Directors are not allowed to disclose confidential information of the Company;
- (9) Directors shall not make use of the associated relationship to damage the interest of the Company;
- (10) Other faithful obligations specified by the laws, administrative regulations, department rules, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles.

Any income of directors by violating this Article shall belong to the Company; if losses are caused to the Company, such directors shall bear the liability for compensation.

Article 111

Directors shall follow laws, administrative regulations and the Articles and bear following assiduous obligations to the Company:

- (1) Directors shall exercise their rights restrainedly, carefully and assiduously to ensure that the commercial activities of the Company are in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of various national economic policies and do not exceed the Company's scope of business as regulated by the business license;
- (2) Directors shall treat all shareholders equally;
- (3) Directors shall timely know the business operation and management condition of the Company;
- (4) Directors shall subscribe on the periodic report with written confirmation opinions to ensure the truth, accuracy and integrity of the information disclosed by the Company;
- (5) Directors shall submit relevant conditions and materials to the Board of Supervisors according to the facts and shall not interfere the Board of Supervisors or supervisors to exercise authorities;
- (6) Other assiduous obligations specified by laws, administrative regulations, department rules, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles.

- Article 112 If a director fails to attend in person twice in succession, and hasn't authorized other director to attend the Board meeting, such director shall be regarded as failure to fulfill his obligations, and the Board of Directors shall suggest the Shareholders' Meeting for dismissal and replacement.
- Article 113 Directors may resign before expiration of the term of office. The directors who ask for resignation shall submit a written resignation report to the Board of Directors.
- If the resignation of directors leads to the number of the Board of Directors below the minimum quorum, before the accession of the re-elected director, the original directors shall fulfill their obligations according to laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Articles.
- Except for the preceding paragraph, the resignation of directors shall take effect after the resignation report is submitted to the Board of Directors.
- Article 114 If the resignation of a director takes effect or the term of office expires, such director shall complete all turnover procedures with the Board of Directors and his faithful obligations to the Company and the shareholders shall not be released after the term of office expires, which shall still be effective within the reasonable duration specified by the Articles.
- Article 115 Unless specified in the Articles or legal authorization by the Board of Directors, any director shall not take an action in his own name on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors. The director shall state his position and identity when taking an action in his own name, provided the third party may consider it reasonable when such director takes an action on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors.
- Article 116 Directors shall bear the liability for compensation if losses are caused to the Company due to violation of the laws, administrative regulations, department rules, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles during the implementation of duties.
- Article 117 Independent directors shall have the duty to act in good faith and conduct due diligence for the Company and all its shareholders. Independent directors shall perform their duties independently in accordance with relevant laws and regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the requirements of the Articles, and not be affected by the Company's substantial shareholders or other entities or individuals that is interested in the Company to protect the interests of the Company as a whole, especially protecting the legal interests of minority shareholders.
- Article 118 The Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, and the shareholders holding, alone or in an aggregate, 1% or more of the issued shares of the Company are entitled to propose a candidate for election as an independent director at the shareholders general meeting.

Article 119

The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the shareholders at general meetings, and shall perform the following functions and exercise the following powers:

- (1) to be responsible for the convening of and reporting to the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (2) to implement the resolutions passed by the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (3) to determine the Company's business plans and investment proposals;
- (4) to formulate the Company's preliminary and final annual financial budgets;
- (5) to formulate the Company's profit distribution proposal and loss recovery proposal;
- (6) to make plans for the Company's increasing or decreasing its registered capital, issuing bonds or other securities and the listing thereof;
- (7) to formulate plans for the Company's material acquisitions, purchase of shares of the Company or merger, division, dissolution and transformation;
- (8) deciding on external investment, acquisition and disposal of assets, pledge of assets, external guarantee, entrusted financial management, connected transactions, external donations and other matters under the authority granted by the general meeting;
- (9) to decide on the Company's internal management structure;
- (10) to decide the appointment or removal of the Company's President and to engage or remove the Company's executive president and other members of the senior management, and to decide on their remuneration and payment method, rewards and penalties;
- (11) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (12) to formulate proposals for any amendment to the Company's Articles of Association;
- (13) to manage information disclosure of the Company;
- (14) to propose to the shareholders' general meeting to appoint or change the accounting firm that provides audit services for the Company;
- (15) to listen to the work report and inspect the work of the manager;
- (16) to perform any other functions and exercise any other powers conferred upon by laws, regulations, regulatory documents, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the Articles or the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company.

On the premise of complying with relevant laws and regulations as well as the mandatory provisions of the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, any person appointed by the Board of Directors as a Director to fill a casual vacancy on or as an addition to the Board of Directors shall hold office until the first annual general meeting after appointment, and shall then be eligible for re-election.

Article 120 The Board shall explain to the general meeting regarding the non-standard auditors' advice given by certified accountant in relation to the financial report of the Company.

Article 121 The Board of Directors shall formulate the rules of procedure for meetings of the Board of Directors in compliance with laws, administrative regulations and requirements of the relevant competent authority, to ensure the implementation by the Board of Directors of the resolutions of the general meeting, higher efficiency and scientific decision-making.

The rules of procedure for Board meetings shall specify the procedures for the convening of and voting at the Board Meetings and be annexed to the Articles of Association and shall be prepared by the Board and implemented upon approval by the general meeting.

Article 122 The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, determine the authority for external investments, purchase and sale of assets, mortgages, external guarantee, entrustment of financial services, connected transactions and external donations, and establish stringent procedures for review and decision-making. Major investment projects shall be assessed by experts and professionals and reported to the general meeting for approval in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 123 The Board shall have one chairman, and may have one or more vice chairman. The chairman and vice chairman shall be appointed by more than 50% of all the Directors by election.

Article 124 The Chairman of the Board shall exercise the following powers and functions:

- (1) to preside over Shareholders' Meeting and to convene and preside over meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (2) to supervise and inspect the implementation of resolutions passed by the Directors at the meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (3) to exercise other powers and functions conferred upon by the Board.

Article 125 The vice chairman of the Company shall assist the chairman. Where the chairman is unable to or does not perform the duty, the vice chairman shall perform the duty (if there are two or more vice chairmen, the one elected by more than one half of the directors shall preside), where the vice chairman is unable to or does not perform the duty, a director nominated by more than half of the directors shall perform the duty.

Article 126 The Board of Directors shall at least hold four regular meetings each year, the Board of Directors' meetings shall be convened by the chairman, and written notice of the meeting shall be served on all Directors and Supervisors 14 days before the date of the meeting. An extraordinary board meeting may be held by request of shareholders representing more than 10% of the voting rights or by request of more than one-third directors or supervisors. The chairman shall convene and preside over a board meeting within 10 days after receipt of the proposal.

The Board of Directors shall notify all Directors and Supervisors in writing or by telephone three days prior to the convening of a special Board meeting; in case of emergency, the foregoing time limit for notice may be waived.

Article 127 A notice of Board meeting shall contain the following contents:

- (1) date and place of the meeting;
- (2) duration of the meeting;
- (3) agenda, particulars, subjects and relevant information;
- (4) issue date of notice.

Article 128 Notice of statutory period shall be given to all Directors for all significant matters requiring the decision-making of the Board of Directors, and sufficient information shall also be provided. When more than one quarter of the Directors or two or more external Directors consider that there is insufficient information or that arguments proposed are imprecise, they may jointly propose that the Board meeting be postponed or that some of the matters to be discussed at the Board meeting be discussed at a later time. Under such circumstances, the Board of Directors shall accept the proposal.

If a substantial shareholder or a Director is deemed to have material conflict of interests in the matter to be considered by the Board of Directors, the matter shall be dealt with in a Board meeting rather than by a written resolution. Only the independent non-executive Directors who and whose associates have no material interest in the transaction shall be present at that Board meeting.

Article 129 Written notices of Board meetings or special Board meetings shall be given by personal delivery, facsimile, express mail or registered airmail or other electronic means of communication, etc.

Article 130 Should a Director attend a meeting, and has not stated his non-receipt of the meeting notice prior to arriving at the onset of the meeting or at the meeting, the said notice of the meeting shall be deemed to have been served.

Article 131 Any regular or extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors may be held by electronic communication so long as all Directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other. All such Directors shall be deemed to be personally present at the meeting.

Article 132 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held only if more than half of the Directors (including the proxies) are present.

Article 133 Each Director shall have one vote. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, a resolution of the Board of Directors must be passed by the majority of the Directors of the Company.

Article 134 Directors shall attend Board meetings in person.

Where a Director is unable to attend a Board meeting for any reason, he may by a written power of attorney appoint another Director to attend the meeting on his behalf. The power of attorney shall state the name of the proxy, the relevant matter to be entrusted, scope of authorization and validity period and shall be signed or sealed by the appointor. A Director appointed as the representative of another Director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a Director within the scope of authority conferred by the appointing Director. Where a Director is unable to attend a Board meeting and has not appointed a proxy to attend the meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at the meeting.

Where a Director or any of his associates (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) is interested in a matter to be considered by the Board of Directors, he shall abstain from voting on such matter at the Boarding meeting. In deciding whether there is quorum for the Board meeting, such Directors shall not be counted.

Article 135 In respect of the matters examined on a special Board meeting, if the Board has delivered in written form the proposal to be voted to all Directors, and the number of the Directors who give their signatures and consent has constituted the quorum required for making a decision pursuant to the Articles, this proposal shall be taken as a written resolution of the Board, without the need to hold the Board meeting. Such written resolution shall be deemed to have the same legal effect as a resolution passed at a Board meeting held in accordance with the procedures set out in the relevant provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article 136 The Board of Directors shall maintain minutes of resolutions passed at meetings of the Board of Directors. Minutes of meetings shall be signed by all the Directors present at the meeting and the Secretary to the Board of Directors (being the person who recorded the minutes). The minutes of a Board meeting shall include the following contents:

(1) date and place of the meeting and name of the convener and the presider;

- (2) names of the directors attending the meeting, names of the directors (proxies) appointed by others to attend the Board meeting and names of the proxies;
- (3) agenda of the meeting;
- (4) main points of directors' speeches, including any concerns raised by Directors or dissenting views expressed (where a meeting is held by way of a written motion, the written feedback from the directors shall prevail);
- (5) method and results of the voting for each proposal (the voting result should specify the number of votes for and against the proposal or abstention);
- (6) signatures of the directors.

Minutes of the Board meeting shall be kept as the Company's record for a period of ten years.

Article 137 The Directors shall assume liability for any resolutions of the Board of Directors. In the event that a resolution of the Board of Directors violates laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association resulting in the Company suffering serious loss, the directors who voted in favor of such a resolution shall compensate the Company for such loss. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, in the event that it can be proven that a Director has expressly objected to such resolution in voting, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such Director shall be duly released from such liability.

Article 138 The opinions expressed by independent non-executive Directors shall be included in the minutes of the Board of Directors. The resolution(s) regarding connected transaction(s) of the Company shall not be effective without the signature of at least two independent non-executive Directors.

Article 139 A director who is related to an enterprise involved in a resolution of a Board Meeting shall not vote on the resolution, nor may he exercise his voting rights as a proxy for other directors, and the number of votes held by him shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes cast, and a resolution of a Board Meeting shall be approved by more than one half of the non-connected Directors; a resolution of a Board Meeting shall be made in a manner that adequately discloses the votes of the non-connected directors. Resolutions of the Board Meeting shall fully disclose the voting status of the non-connected Directors. If the number of non-connected Directors presenting at a Board Meeting is less than three, the matter shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

Chapter 10 Secretary to the Board of Directors

Article 140 The Company shall have a Secretary to the Board of Directors, who shall be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors. The Secretary to the Board of Directors shall be a member of the senior management of the Company.

Article 141 The secretary to the Company's Board of Directors shall be a natural person who has the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. His primary functions shall include:

- (1) to keep the Company's organizational documents and records intact;
- (2) to ensure the Company prepares and submits reports and documents as required by relevant authorities according to laws;
- (3) to maintain the register of shareholders of the Company and ensure the persons entitled to access the Company's records and documents receive the same in time;
- (4) to be responsible for the preparation of the general meeting of the Company and the meetings of the Board, document storage and management of shareholders' data of the Company;
- (5) information disclosure;
- (6) other duties stipulated by laws, rules and regulations, Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles.

Article 142 A Director or senior management of the Company may be appointed as the Secretary to the Board of Directors. The accountant of the Accounting firm appointed by the Company cannot serve concurrently as the Secretary to the Board of Directors.

In the event that the office of secretary is held concurrently by a Director, and an action is required to be conducted separately by a Director and a Secretary, the person who holds the offices of Director and Secretary shall not perform such action in dual capacity.

Chapter 11 President

Article 143 The Company shall have one President, who shall be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors.

The president shall serve for a term of 3 years and may serve consecutive terms if reappointed.

Article 144 The President shall be held accountable to the Board of Directors and exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) to operate and manage the Company as well as implement resolutions of the Board and report to the Board of Directors;
- (2) to implementing the Company's annual operation and investment plan;
- (3) to make plans for the structuring of the Company's internal management departments;
- (4) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (5) to formulate specific regulations for the Company;
- (6) to propose to the Board of Directors to appoint or remove executive president and other members of the senior management;
- (7) to decide to to appoint or remove management staff except those that shall be appointed or removed by the Board;
- (8) to exercise other functions and powers conferred upon by these Articles of Association and the Board.

Article 145 The President may attend meetings of the Board of Directors. However, the President has no voting rights at the meetings unless he is also a Director.

Article 146 The President shall exercise his functions and powers in accordance with the laws and regulations and these Articles of Association on a basis of honesty and diligence.

Chapter 12 Board of Supervisors

Article 147 The Company shall establish a Board of Supervisors. The Board of Supervisors shall supervise the Board of Directors, Directors, President and other members of the senior management of the Company and shall prevent them from abusing powers, infringing interests of the shareholders, the Company and its employees.

Article 148 The Board of Supervisors shall consists of 3 Supervisors, one of whom shall be appointed as the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

The term of office for a Supervisor is 3 years, and the Supervisor may be reappointed at the expiry of the term of office. The appointment and removal of the Chairman of Board of Supervisors shall be by votes of two thirds or more of the Supervisors. A supervisor shall continue to perform his/her duties as a supervisor in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles until a duly re-elected supervisor takes office, if re-election is not conducted in a timely manner upon the expiry of his/her term of office or if the resignation of the supervisor results in the number of supervisors being less than the quorum.

Article 149 The Board of Supervisors shall consist of 2 shareholder representatives and 1 employee representative of the Company. The shareholder representatives shall be elected and removed by the Shareholders' Meeting and the employee representative shall be elected and removed by employees of the Company in a democratic way.

Article 150 Directors, President or other members of the senior management of the Company shall not be appointed as Supervisors.

Article 151 The Board of Supervisors shall hold at least one meeting every six months, which may be proposed to convene an interim meeting of the Board of Supervisors by a Supervisor.

A resolution of the Board of Supervisors must be approved by more than half of the Supervisors.

The chairman of the Board of Supervisors is responsible for convening the meetings of the Board of Supervisors. The Board of Supervisors shall notify all Supervisors in writing 3 days prior to the convening of an extraordinary Board of Supervisors meeting. In case of emergency, the Supervisors may propose to convene an extraordinary Board of Supervisors meeting at any time without being subject to the restriction on the notification of the Board of Supervisors mentioned above.

Article 152 The Board of Supervisors shall be held accountable to the Shareholders' Meeting and perform the following functions and exercise its powers in accordance with the laws:

- (1) to review the periodic reports of the Company prepared by the Board of Directors and express its written opinion;
- (2) to review the Company's financial affairs;
- (3) to supervise the work of the Directors, President and other members of the senior management who have violated laws, administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, these Articles of Association or remove proposal proposed by the directors of the Shareholder's General Meeting, chairman and other senior management personnel;

- (4) to demand redress from Directors, President or any other members of the senior management should their acts be deemed against the Company's interests;
- (5) to propose the convening of extraordinary general meetings and, in case the Board of Directors does not perform the obligations to convene and preside over the general meetings in accordance with Company Law, to convene and preside over the general meetings;
- (6) to bring forward proposals at shareholders' general meetings;
- (7) to initiate legal proceedings against Directors and the senior management according to the provisions of article 151 of the Company Law;
- (8) to conduct investigation if there is any doubt or any unusual circumstances in the Company's operations; and if necessary, to engage an accounting firm, law firm or other professional institutions to assist in their work at the expenses of the Company;
- (9) to perform and exercise other functions and powers designated by shareholders at Shareholders' Meetings.

A supervisor may attend board meetings as a non-voting attendee and raise questions or suggestions on the matters to be decided by the Board of Directors.

Article 153 All reasonable fees incurred in the retaining of such professionals as lawyers, certified public accountants or chartered auditors by the Board of Supervisors in the exercise of its functions and powers shall be borne by the Company.

Article 154 The Board of Supervisors shall formulate procedural rules to be followed at meetings of the Board of Supervisors, specify the method for discussions and the voting procedures of the Board of Supervisors, so as to ensure the working efficiency and scientific decision making of the Board of Supervisors. The rules of procedure for the Board of Supervisors shall be prepared by the Board of Supervisors and approved by the general meeting as an appendix to the Articles.

Article 155 The Board of Supervisors shall record decision on matters discussed in the minutes for the meeting. Supervisors who attended the meeting shall sign on the minutes for the meeting.

A supervisor is entitled to request for some descriptive record to be made with regard to his/her speech in the meeting. The minutes of the Board of Supervisors meeting shall be kept for at least 10 years as document of the Company.

Article 156 Notice of the meeting of the Board of Supervisors shall include:

- (I) the date, place and duration of the meeting;
- (II) cause and topic;
- (III) date of notice.

Article 157 Supervisors shall observe the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, and perform their supervisory duties faithfully.

Chapter 13 Qualifications and Obligations of Directors, Supervisors, President and Other Senior Management

Article 158 A person may not serve as Director, Supervisor, President or a member of the senior management of the Company if:

- (1) he does not possess civil capacity or possess limited civil capacity;

- (6) the person is currently being prohibited from participating in securities market by the CSRC and such barring period has not elapsed;
- (7) other circumstances specified by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 159 In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, each of the Company's Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management owe the following duties to each shareholder in the exercise of the functions and powers of the Company:

- (1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business license;
- (2) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (3) not to expropriate the Company's property in any manner, including (but not limited to) usurpation of beneficial opportunities to the Company;
- (4) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including (but not limited to) voting rights and distribution rights, except pursuant to a restructuring of the Company which has been submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting for approval in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 160 Each Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management of the Company shall, in the exercise of his powers and in the discharge of his duties, exercise the care, diligence and skill(s) that a reasonably prudent person would exercise under comparable circumstances.

Article 161 Each Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management of the Company shall exercise his power or perform his duties in accordance with the principles of fiduciary duty, and shall avoid conflict of interests. These principles include (but not limited to) the following obligations:

- (1) to act honestly in the best interest of the Company;
- (2) to act within the scope of his powers and not to exceed such powers;
- (3) to exercise discretion in person without being subject to the directions of other individuals, and not to transfer such power to other individuals unless otherwise permitted by laws or administrative regulations or approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (4) to treat shareholders of the same class with equality, and to treat different classes with fairness;
- (5) not to execute any contracts or transactions or make arrangements with the Company unless otherwise provided by these Articles of Association or approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;

- (6) not to pursue his own benefit in any way using the Company's assets unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (7) not to accept any bribery or other illegal income through his powers and position, and not to seize the Company's assets in any manner, including (but not limited to) beneficial opportunities to the Company;
- (8) not to accept any commission with respect to the Company transactions without the approval granted by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (9) to comply with these Articles of Association, to perform his duties honestly and faithfully, to protect the Company's interests, and not to pursue personal gains by taking advantage of his powers and position at the Company;
- (10) not to compete with the Company in any manner unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision made at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (11) not to misappropriate the funds of the Company or make loans to others out of the funds of the Company, not to deposit the assets of the Company into accounts under his name or any other name, and not to use assets of the Company as security for debts to shareholders of the Company or other individuals;
- (12) not to divulge any confidential information concerning the Company that has been obtained during his term of office, unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the Shareholders' Meeting; and not to utilize such information unless for the purpose of benefiting the interests of the Company; notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, they are allowed to disclose such information to a court of law or other competent government authorities under the following circumstances:
 - (i) as prescribed by laws;
 - (ii) as required for the purpose of public interest;
 - (iii) as required for the interest of the Directors, Supervisors, President or other members of the senior management.

Article 162 A Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management of the Company shall not direct the following persons or organizations (hereinafter referred to as “connected parties”) to do what he is prohibited from doing:

- (1) spouses or minor children of that Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management of the Company;
- (2) the trustees of those Directors, Supervisors, President or other members of senior management of the Company or trustees of those as described in Clause (1) above;
- (3) the partners of those Directors, Supervisors, President or other members of senior management of the Company or partners of those as described in Clause (1) and Clause (2) above;
- (4) a company (or companies) under the exclusive control of those Directors, Supervisors, President or other members of senior management of the Company or under joint control of any person as described in Clause (1), Clause (2), Clause (3) of this Article or other Directors, Supervisors, President or other members of senior management of the Company;
- (5) the Directors, Supervisors, President or other members of senior management of the controlled companies as described in Clause (4) above.

Article 163 The fiduciary duty of a Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management of the Company may not necessarily cease upon the conclusion of his term, and their obligations to keep the commercial secrets of the Company shall survive beyond the conclusion of his term. The duration of other obligations and duties shall be determined in accordance with the principle of fairness, taking into account the lapse between the time when a Director, Supervisor, President and other members of senior management of the Company leaves the office and the occurrence of the relevant event, and the situation and the circumstances under which his relation with the Company was ceased.

Article 164 A Director, Supervisor, President and other members of senior management of the Company who directly or indirectly has many material interests in any contracts, transactions, or arrangements executed or proposed to be executed with the Company (except for contracts of service between the Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management and the Company), shall, as soon as possible, disclose to the Board of Directors, the nature and extent of his interest, regardless of whether or not such matters require the approval of the Board of Directors under the normal circumstance.

Unless the interested Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management of the Company have made such disclosure to the Board of Directors as required by the preceding paragraph of this Article, and the relevant matter has been approved by the Board of Directors at the Board meeting in which such Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management have not been counted into the quorum and voted at the meeting, the Company shall be entitled to rescind such contracts, transactions, or arrangements, except as to any other party which is deemed a bona fide party without knowledge of the violation of duties on the part of such Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management.

Where any connected party of any Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management of the Company possess interest in any contracts, transactions or arrangements, such Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management shall also be deemed to be interested.

Article 165 In the event that, prior to the Company's initial consideration of such contracts, transactions, or arrangements referred to by the preceding Article, and a Director, Supervisor, President or other senior management of the Company has delivered a written notice to the Board of Directors, stating his interests in such future contracts, transactions, or arrangements, such Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management shall be deemed to have made the disclosure as provided in the preceding Article with respect to the statement(s) contained in the notice.

Article 166 The Company shall not, in any manner, pay any taxes for its Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management.

Article 167 The Company shall not directly or indirectly provide a loan or a guarantee in connection with the provision of a loan to a Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management of the Company or of the Company's holding company or any of their respective connected parties. The preceding paragraph of this Article is not applicable to the following cases:

- (1) the provision of a loan by the Company to, or a guarantee in connection with a loan to, its subsidiaries;
- (2) the provision of a loan by the Company to, or a guarantee in connection with a loan or making any other funds available to any of its Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management to pay any expenses incurred by them for the purpose of the Company or for the purpose of his performance of his duties in accordance with a service contract approved by the shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting;

- (3) in the event that the ordinary course of the business of the Company includes the loaning of funds or the provision of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to, or provide a guarantee in connection with a loan to, the relevant Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management or their respective connected parties, provided that such loans or guarantees are on normal commercial terms.

Article 168 Any person who receives any funds from a loan which has been made by the Company in violation of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

Article 169 A guarantee for a loan which has been provided by the Company in violation of paragraph 1 of Article 167 shall not be enforceable against the Company, except with respect to the following circumstances:

- (1) the loan was provided to a connected party of any of the Directors, Supervisors, President and other members of senior management of the Company or of the Company's holding company and the provider of the loan of such funds has no knowledge of the relevant circumstances at the time of making the loan;
- (2) the collateral provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 170 For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a "guarantee" shall include an undertaking or any property provided by the guarantor to secure the obligator's performance of his obligations.

Article 171 In addition to the rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations when a Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management of the Company breaches his duties to the Company, the Company shall be entitled:

- (1) to require such Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management to compensate for any loss sustained by the Company as a result of such breach of duty;
- (2) to rescind any contract or transaction entered into between the Company and such Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management or between the Company and a third party, where such party knows or should have known that such Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management representing the Company was in breach of his duty to the Company;
- (3) to require such Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management to surrender the profits made as result of such breach of his duty;

- (4) to recover any amount which otherwise should have been received by the Company but were received by such Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management instead, including (but not limited to) any commission;
- (5) to demand the payment of interest earned or which may have been earned by such Director, Supervisor, President or other members of senior management on any sum which should have been received by the Company.

Article 172 The Company shall enter into a written contract with each Director, Supervisor and member of senior management containing at least the following:

- (1) an undertaking made by such Director, Supervisor and member of senior management to the Company that he will comply with the Company Law, these Articles of Association and the Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and Share Repurchases published by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong as amended from time to time, and an agreement that the Company shall enjoy the remedies provided in these Articles of Association and that neither the contract or his office is capable of assignment;
- (2) an undertaking made by such Director, Supervisor and member of senior management to the Company that he will comply with and perform his obligations to shareholders under these Articles of Association.

Article 173 With the prior approval of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company shall enter into a written contract with a Director or Supervisor with respect to his remuneration. The aforementioned remuneration may include:

- (1) remuneration with respect to his service as a Director, Supervisor or members of senior management of the Company;
- (2) remuneration with respect to his service as a Director, Supervisor or members of senior management of any subsidiary/subsidiaries of the Company;
- (3) remuneration with respect to the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) any payment as compensation for, or in connection with loss of office or retirement from office of such Director or Supervisor.

No proceedings may be brought by a Director or Supervisor against the Company for any benefit which otherwise would have been received by him by virtue of any aforementioned matters except pursuant to any contract described above.

Chapter 14 Financial Accounting System and Profit Distribution

- Article 174 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems and internal auditing system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and relevant government authorities.
- Article 175 A financial report shall be prepared at the end of each financial year and shall be examined and verified according to laws.
- Article 176 The Board of Directors of the Company shall present to the shareholders, at each annual general meeting, such financial reports as required by applicable laws, administrative regulations, regulatory documents promulgated by local governments and competent authorities.
- Article 177 The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company 20 days prior to the date of annual general meeting of shareholders. Each shareholder of the Company is entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.
- Article 178 The Company shall send by prepaid mail to each holder of overseas-listed shares, at the address of such shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders, a copy of the annual report containing the balance sheet (including each document to be contained in the appendices of the balance sheet as required by relevant laws and regulations), the income statement or the statement of recognized income and expenses or the summarized financial report, at least 21 days prior to the date of every annual general meeting. Subject to the laws, administrative regulations or Hong Kong Listing Rules, the said statements may also be given by way of public announcement (including publishing on the website of the Company or the website of Hong Kong Stock Exchange). Once the announcement is made and the procedures stipulated in the Hong Kong Listing Rules are fulfilled, all shareholders shall be deemed to have received the aforementioned financial report.
- Article 179 The Company shall publish its annual results announcement within 3 months of the end of each accounting year and publish its interim results announcement within 2 months of the end of the first six-month period of each accounting year in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules.
- The Company shall publish its annual report within 4 months of the end of each accounting year and publish its interim report within 3 months of the end of the first six-month period of each accounting year in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 180 The Company shall not establish account books other than those required by law.

Article 181 The Company's after-tax profit shall be allocated in the following order:

- (1) the making up of any loss;
- (2) allocation to the statutory common reserve fund;
- (3) allocation to discretionary common reserve fund in accordance with the resolution passed at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (4) payment of ordinary share dividends. No profit shall be distributed as dividends or in any other form as bonus before making up losses and setting aside of the Company's statutory reserve fund.

Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any shares may carry interest but shall not entitle the shareholder of such shares to participate in respect thereof in a dividend subsequently declared.

The power to cease sending dividend warrants by post will not be exercised until such dividend warrants have been so left uncashed on two consecutive occasions. However, such power may also be exercised after the first occasion on which such a dividend warrant is returned undelivered.

Subject to the laws and regulations of China and the rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Company may exercise its power to forfeit unclaimed dividends, but only upon the expiry of the period for which the dividends can be claimed. With regard to the exercise of power to issue warrants in bearer form, no new warrants shall be issued to replace one that has been lost, unless the Company is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed.

With regard to the right to dispose of the shares held by untraceable holders of overseas-listed shares, the Company's right to dispose is subject to the following conditions: (i) during a period of 12 years, dividends in respect of the shares in question have been distributed at least three times and no such dividend has been claimed; and (ii) upon expiry of the 12-year period, the Company has given notice of its intention to dispose of such shares by way of an announcement published in newspapers and informs the Hong Kong Stock Exchange of its intention.

Article 182 The Company shall, when distributing the post-tax profit of an accounting year, accrue 10% of the profit to list it in the statutory reserves of the Company. The Company may not further accrue the statutory reserves when its accumulative amount exceeds 50% of the registered capital of the Company.

When the statutory reserves of the Company fall short to offset the loss of prior years, the Company shall use the profit earned during the year to offset the loss before accruing the statutory reserves according to the preceding paragraph.

After accruing the statutory reserves out of the post-tax profit, the Company may, subject to the resolution of the shareholders' meeting, accrue the discretionary reserve out of the post-tax profit.

The post-tax profit left after the loss recovery and accrual of the reserves shall be distributed in proportion according to the shareholding proportions of the shareholders, unless otherwise specified under the Articles.

If the shareholders' meeting breaches the preceding paragraph by distributing the profit to the shareholders before the loss recovery and accrual of the statutory reserves, the shareholders shall return to the Company the profit distributed in violation of the law.

The Company shares held by the Company shall not participate in the profit distribution.

Article 183 The capital reserve fund shall include the followings:

- (1) any premium which exceeds the proceeds from issuance of shares at face value;
- (2) any other income credited to the capital reserve fund as required by the finance department of the State Council.

Article 184 Reserves of the Company may be applied towards the following objectives:

- (1) making up of losses, except that capital reserves may not be used.
- (2) conversion into capital. In the case of conversion of statutory reserves into capital through capitalization, the balance of such balance shall not be reduced to below 25% of the registered capital of the Company prior to the conversion.
- (3) expansion of the Company's production and operation.

Article 185 The dividend distribution plans of the Company shall be voted at the Shareholders' Meeting. After the Board of Directors takes into account the Company's financial position and subject to the relevant laws and regulations, shareholders may authorize by ordinary resolution the Board of Directors to distribute and pay dividends.

Article 186 The Company may distribute dividends in either of the following forms or a combination of both:

(1) cash;

(2) shares.

The power to forfeit any unclaimed dividends shall be exercised only upon the expiry of the period for which the dividends can be claimed.

Article 187 After a resolution on the profit distribution plan is made at the shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall complete the distribution of the dividend (or Shares) within 2 months after the said meeting.

Article 188 Dividends in respect of ordinary shares shall be denominated and paid in Renminbi.

Dividends in respect of domestic shares shall be paid in Renminbi. Dividends in respect of overseas-listed shares and other distributions shall be denominated and declared in Renminbi, and shall be paid in the currency of the place where the shares are listed, and where there is more than one of such places, in the currency of the place of primary listing as determined by the Board of Directors.

Article 189 Dividends paid in foreign currency shall be converted at the average closing exchange rate quoted by the People's Bank of China for the week preceding the declaration of dividends and other distributions.

Article 190 The Company shall appoint a receiving agent for the shareholders of the overseas-listed foreign shares.

Such receiving agent shall receive dividends of the overseas-listed foreign shares on behalf of such relevant shareholders, as well as all other amounts payable to such shareholders. The receiving agent appointed by the Company shall meet relevant requirements of the laws of the places and the relevant regulations of the stock exchange in which the Company's shares are listed. The receiving agent appointed for shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Article 191 The Company shall have an internal audit system, arrange special auditors, and conduct the internal audit supervision of the financial incomes and expenditures and economic activities of the Company.

Chapter 15 Appointment of Accounting Firm

- Article 192 The Company shall engage an accountant firm that complies with the provisions of the Securities Law to audit financial statements, verify net assets and provide other relevant consultation services. The engagement shall be one year and may be renewed.
- Article 193 The term of an accounting firm retained by the Company shall commence upon the conclusion of one annual general meeting of shareholders and shall sustain until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of shareholders.
- Article 194 The accounting firm engaged by the Company shall have the following rights:
- (1) to inspect books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time, and to require the Directors, President and other members of senior management of the Company to provide relevant information and explanations;
 - (2) to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries any information and explanations necessary for the discharge of its duties;
 - (3) to attend any Shareholders' Meeting and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any Shareholders' Meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any Shareholders' Meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's retained accounting firm.
- Article 195 In the event of a vacancy in the Company's accounting firm, subject to compliance with the relevant requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the Board of Directors may retain an accounting firm to fill such vacancy prior to the convening of the general meeting of shareholders. Such accounting firm may continue to act during the vacancy period if the Company has another incumbent accounting firm.
- Article 196 Irrespective of the provisions in the contract concluded between the Company and the accounting firm, the Shareholders' Meeting may remove the accounting firm by an ordinary resolution before the term of the accounting firm expires. Notwithstanding such provisions, the accounting firm's entitlement to claim for damages arising out of its removal shall not be affected thereby.
- Article 197 The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be compensated shall be decided by the Shareholders' Meeting by ordinary resolution. Subject to compliance with the relevant requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the remuneration of an accounting firm retained by the Board of Directors shall be decided by the Board of Directors.
- Article 198 The Shareholders' Meeting shall decide to retain, remove or discontinue the retention of an accounting firm by ordinary resolution.

Article 199 Notice shall be given to the accounting firm in advance should the Company decide to remove such accounting firm or not to reappoint it. Such accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations at the Shareholders' Meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns from its position, it shall clarify to the shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting on any irregularities on the part of the Company.

Article 200 An accounting firm may resign from its office by depositing a resignation notice at the Company's residence, which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as stated therein. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (1) a statement to the effect that there are absolutely no circumstances with respect to its resignation which it believes should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (2) a statement of any such circumstances.

Chapter 16 Merger and Division and Increase and Decrease of Capital of the Company

Article 201 In the event of a merger or division of the Company, the Company's Board of Directors shall submit a motion, which shall be approved in accordance with the procedures stipulated in these Articles of Association and go through relevant examination and approval formalities pursuant to laws. Shareholders who object to the merger or division proposal shall be entitled to request that the Company or the consenting shareholders acquire such dissenting shareholders' shares at a fair price.

Article 202 The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by establishment of a new company.

In the event of a merger of the Company, the parties to the merger shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and publish an announcement in a newspaper within 30 days after the date of the Company's merger resolution. The creditors may require the Company to repay debts or provide corresponding guarantees within 30 days after receipt of the notice or within 45 days after the first announcement if the creditors haven't received the notice.

After the merger of the Company, any rights in relation to creditor's rights and debts of each party to the merger shall be assumed by the surviving company after the merger or the newly established company.

Article 203 Where there is a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided accordingly.

In the event of a division, the parties to the division shall execute a division agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days and publish an announcement in newspapers within 30 days after the date of the Company's division resolution. The creditors shall have the right, within 30 days of receipt of the notice or within 45 days of the date of the first public announcement if the notice has not been received, to require the Company to pay its debts or provide guarantee to the amount of its debts.

The debts of the Company incurred prior to the division shall be jointly assumed by the companies formed after the division, except for debts specified in written agreements in respect of settlement of debts entered into between the Company and its creditors prior to the division.

Article 204 Changes in registration particulars of the Company resulting from the merger or division must be registered with the company registration authority in accordance with law. Cancellation of the Company shall be registered in accordance with the law when the Company is dissolved. Incorporation of the Company shall be registered when a new company is incorporated in accordance with law.

If the Company increases or reduces its registered capital, the Company shall, in accordance with the laws, apply for change in registration with the company registration authority.

Chapter 17 Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

Article 205 The Company is dissolved for the following reasons:

- (1) the business term of the Company under the Articles has expired or occurrence of the reason for other dissolution under the Articles;
